

Announcements

The Editorial Advisory Board of the Business History Review
announces the winner of the 2012
HENRIETTA LARSON ARTICLE AWARD:

Per Hansen, “Business History: A Cultural and Narrative Approach”

A certificate is presented to the author of the best article published each year.

BUSINESS HISTORY FELLOWSHIPS AT HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL.

Thomas K. McCraw Fellowship in US Business History. This award honors the work and contributions of Thomas K. McCraw (1940–2012), who was Isidor Straus Professor of Business History at Harvard Business School. The fellowship enables established scholars from around the world whose primary interest is the business and economic history of the United States to spend time in residence at Harvard Business School. The main activities of the Thomas K. McCraw Fellow will be to conduct research in the archives of Baker Library or in other Boston-area libraries, present his or her work at a seminar, and interact with HBS faculty.

The Thomas K. McCraw Fellow will receive a stipend of $7,000 to cover travel and living expenses. Fellows are expected to be in residence for a minimum of two months. Recipients of the fellowship will receive work space, an email account, a phone, a computer, an ID card, and access to the University’s libraries and to the HBS Intranet for the duration of the appointment. Applicants should send a cover letter, a CV, and a two- to three-page research proposal to Walter A. Friedman, Connell 301A, Harvard Business School, Boston, MA 02163, USA. This material can also be sent via email to wfriedman@hbs.edu.

Applications for the fellowship should arrive no later than September 15 of the calendar year preceding that in which the fellowship is to be used. The applicant should also arrange for two letters of reference, sent directly by the recommender, to arrive at the above address by September 15.

Business History Review 87 (Summer 2013): 329–336. doi:10.1017/S0007680513000664
© 2013 The President and Fellows of Harvard College. ISSN 0007-6805; 2044-768X (Web).

Alfred D. Chandler Jr. International Visiting Scholar in Business History. The Alfred D. Chandler Jr. International Visiting Scholar in Business History Program invites established scholars in business history based outside the United States to spend a period of time in residence at Harvard Business School. The Chandler International Visiting Scholar is expected to interact with faculty and researchers, present work at research seminars, and conduct business history research.

Recipients will be given a $7,000 stipend (payable at the end of their visit), office space, an email account, phone, computer, ID card, and access to the University's libraries and the HBS Intranet. The program requires a two-month minimum length of stay. Scholars may stay up to a maximum of six months. Applicants should indicate when, during the calendar year, they would like to be in residence at the School. It is expected that the recipient will be actively engaged in the intellectual life of the business history group.

Applicants should send a cover letter, a CV, and a two- to three-page research proposal to Walter A. Friedman, Connell 301A, Harvard Business School, Boston, MA 02163, USA. This material can also be sent via email to wfriedman@hbs.edu. Applications for the fellowship should arrive no later than September 15 of the calendar year preceding that in which the fellowship is to be used. The applicant should also arrange for two letters of reference, sent directly by the recommender, to arrive at the above address by September 15. Grants will be announced by the end of October.

Harvard-Newcomen Postdoctoral Fellowship in Business History. To be awarded for twelve months' residence, study, and research at Harvard Business School. The fellowship is open to scholars who, within the last ten years, have received a PhD in history, economics, or a related discipline. The fellowship has two purposes: The first is to enable scholars to engage in research that will benefit from the resources of Harvard Business School and the larger Boston scholarly community. A travel fund and a book fund will be provided.

The second purpose is to provide an opportunity for the fellow to participate in the activities of Harvard Business School. The fellow is required to research and write a case, under the direction of a senior faculty member, to be used in one of the business history courses. Finally, the fellow is encouraged to submit an article to Business History Review during his or her year at the School.

Applicants should submit a CV, undergraduate transcript and graduate-school record, thesis abstract, and writing sample (such as an article or a book chapter). Applicants should also state the topics, objectives, and design for the specific research to be undertaken. Finally, applicants should indicate the names of three people who will write references on their behalf. The three letters of recommendation are to be submitted by the writers directly by October 15 of the calendar year preceding that in which the fellowship is to be used. It is the responsibility of the applicant to solicit these letters. The fellowship will be awarded and all applicants notified by mid-January. The Fellowship will begin July 1.

Applications should be received no later than October 15 and submitted online to: <https://poplar.hbs.edu/ofr/register/registerApplicant.htm>. Please direct your recommenders to visit: <https://poplar.hbs.edu/ofr/upload/startUploadRecommendation.htm>.

Alfred D. Chandler Jr. Travel Fellowships. The purpose of this fellowship is to facilitate library and archival research in business or economic history. Individual grants range from $1,000 to $3,000. Three categories of applicants will be eligible for grants: 1) Harvard University graduate students in history, economics, or business administration, whose research requires travel to distant archives or repositories; 2) graduate students or nontenured faculty in those fields from other universities, in the US and abroad, whose research requires travel to Baker Library and other local archives; and 3) Harvard College undergraduates writing senior theses in these fields whose research requires travel away from Cambridge.

To apply, send a CV, a summary of past academic research (of 1–2 pages), and a detailed description of the research you wish to undertake (of 2–3 pages). Applicants must indicate the amount of money requested (up to $3,000). Please also arrange to have one letter of reference sent independently of the application. The deadline for receipt of applications is November 1 of the calendar year preceding that in which the fellowship is to be used. All materials should be sent to Walter A. Friedman, Connell 301A, Harvard Business School, Boston, MA 02163, USA. Email: wfriedman@hbs.edu.

Harvard University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

. . .

HAGLEY MUSEUM AND LIBRARY GRANTS.

Hagley Exploratory Research Grants. These grants support one-week visits by scholars who believe that their project will benefit from Hagley research collections, but need the opportunity to explore them on-site to determine if a Henry Belin du Pont research grant application is warranted. Priority will be given to junior scholars with innovative projects that seek to expand on existing scholarship. Applicants should reside more than 50 miles from Hagley, and the stipend is $400. Application deadlines: March 31, June 30, and October 31.

Henry Belin du Pont Fellowships. These research grants enable scholars to pursue advanced research and study in the collections of the Hagley Library. They are awarded for the length of time needed to make use of Hagley collections for a specific project. The stipends are for a maximum of eight weeks and are prorated at $400/week for recipients who reside further than 50 miles from Hagley, and $200/week for those within 50 miles. Application deadlines: March 31, June 30, and October 31.

Applications for all grants now must take place through our web-based system that can be accessed through our grants and fellowship page: <http://www.hagley.org/library/center/grants.html>. Questions about our grant procedures may be directed to Carol Lockman, clockman@Hagley.org.

. . .

FULBRIGHT SCHOLARSHIPS. The 2014–2015 Fulbright US Scholar Program core competition is now open.

The Fulbright Scholar Program offers teaching, research or combination teaching/research awards in over 125 countries for the 2014–2015 academic year. Opportunities are available for college and university faculty and administrators as well as for professionals, artists, journalists, scientists, lawyers, independent scholars, and many others.

This year, there are over eighty awards available in the field of business administration. Moreover, All Discipline awards offered in all regions of the world welcome teaching and/or research proposals in any area of study, including interdisciplinary projects. American faculty and professionals in business development, entrepreneurship, and other specializations are in high demand to bring their expertise to campuses worldwide as Fulbright Scholars.

In Austria, applications are sought for the Fulbright-Kathryn and Craig Hall Distinguished Chair for Entrepreneurship in Central Europe at Vienna University. Business administration is highly sought after in the Middle East, with special opportunities in Egypt, Jordan, Bahrain, and Oman. In El Salvador and Haiti, business development expertise is highly sought after. These are only a fraction of the many opportunities offered by the Fulbright Scholar Program for 2014–15.

In order to meet the changing needs of academia and develop new options to better accommodate the interests and commitments of today's scholars, the program has introduced several innovations to the 2014–2015 program, including: Fulbright Flex Awards, Fulbright Post-doctoral/Early Career Awards, Salary Stipend Supplements, and Teaching English as a Foreign Language Awards. Learn more by visiting the Catalog of Awards: <http://catalog.cies.org/>.

The application deadline for most awards is August 1, 2013. US citizenship is required. For other eligibility requirements and detailed award descriptions visit our website at http://www.cies.org/us_scholars/us_awards/ or contact us at scholars@iie.org.

. . .

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR BANKING AND FINANCIAL HISTORY CONFERENCE. Call for papers for the conference “The Challenges of International Banking Regulation and Supervision after 1945,” January 16–17, 2014. The conference is jointly organized by the European Association for Banking and Financial History (EABH) and the University of Glasgow and will take place in Frankfurt am Main, Germany.

Financial regulation and supervision has gained prominence in the public debate over the past few years. The aim of this conference is to contextualize discussions about financial regulation and supervision since World War II, in particular by providing an historical perspective to current debates. Conference organizers welcome proposals investigating the obstacles and challenges to international banking regulation and supervision after 1945. The aim of the conference is to bring together different approaches—legal, economic, political science/political economy, historical—in order to enrich and widen the debate about international regulation and supervision.

Potential contributors interested in participating should submit a paper proposal not exceeding one page and a recent CV as email attachments by September 30, 2013 to Dr. Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (Emmanuel.Mourlon-Druol@glasgow.ac.uk) with “EABH/Glasgow Conference” in the email headline. Final papers will be circulated in advance of the conference and should be around 6000 words. The organizers plan to publish the proceedings of the conference.

Please note that should your institution be unable to do so, there are limited funds available to support travel expenses.

For more information, please visit the website: <http://www.bank-reg.co.uk/2013/03/27/call-for-papers-conference-the-challenges-of-international-banking-regulation-and-supervision-after-1945-16-17-january-2014/>.

. . .

PIONEER SOCIETY OF AMERICA CONFERENCE. The Pioneer America Society: Association for the Preservation of Artifacts & Landscapes (PAS: APAL) will hold its 45th annual conference in the Mohawk Valley Region of New York, from October 9 to 12, 2013. The meeting headquarters will be in the restored 1912 Hotel Utica, designed by Eisenvein and Johnson of Buffalo, in historic downtown Utica, New York.

The 2013 Conference theme is “The Mohawk Valley—New England Extended: Landscapes of Cultural and Economic Change and Diversity.” The Mohawk Valley in New York State has a rich and diverse history that includes landscapes from Native Americans, vernacular houses and barns influenced by the settlers from New England and their passion for classical revival styles, along with canals and railroads that produced urban and industrial landscapes. Nearby are also landscapes of leisure (Adirondacks), religion (the burnt over district), and Coopers-town, a shrine to America’s pastime.

The conference committee is currently soliciting proposals for papers, special sessions, and panel discussions relating to the conference theme. However, papers on all material culture and landscape topics of interest to the Society are welcome. Note: Only papers submitted by PAS: APAL members and registered participants will be accepted for the program. Presentations will be limited to 20 minutes with additional time for comments and questions. All presentation equipment will be provided.

Abstracts must be no longer than 300 words, and include the title, name of author(s), and affiliation(s). Electronic submission in Microsoft Word is preferred. Abstracts will be published in P.A.S.T. (Pioneer America Society Transactions). Abstract submissions are due by 5:00 p.m. Friday, September 20, 2013. Abstracts should be sent directly to:

Dawn S. Bowen, Program Chair
2013 PAS: APAL Conference
Department of Geography
311 Monroe Hall
University of Mary Washington
1301 College Avenue
Fredericksburg, VA 22401
dbowen@umw.edu

. . .

WORLD ECONOMIC HISTORY CONGRESS. The Economic History Association is interested in supporting a bid to host the World Economic History Congress in the summer of 2018. It is a long process and it requires that the potential hosts start the process by making a proposal to the Economic History Association Board by August 1, 2013. A decision will be made about the host city at the EHA Board meeting in September 2013. The host chosen will then be responsible for preparing the bid and submitting it by the International Economic History Association's (IEHA) deadline in the Summer of 2014. The IEHA Executive Committee will then have the bidding hosts present their bids at a meeting in Amsterdam in the fall of 2014. If you are interested in submitting a bid to the EHA to start the process, contact EHA Executive Director, Price Fishback, at pfishback@eller.arizona.edu. He can give you more details and share with you copies of past bid proposals.

. . .

CALL FOR PAPERS. The Independent Review is a scholarly interdisciplinary journal devoted to the study of political economy and the critical analysis of government policy. It publishes carefully researched, peer-reviewed scholarship and seeks to be provocative, lucid, and written in an engaging style. Ranging across the fields of economics, political science, law, history, philosophy, and sociology, the Independent Review takes a classical liberal approach and reaches a wide readership among academics, advanced students, policy analysts, journalists, and serious generalists.

Economic historian Robert Higgs, the journal's founding editor, will soon become its editor-at-large and is handing off editorial tasks to Robert Whaples (Wake Forest University), Christopher Coyne (George Mason), and Michael Munger (Duke).

The new editorial team welcomes high-quality article submissions, especially in economic history. Please email your paper (as a Word document) to whaples@wfu.edu.

. . .

EASTERN EUROPEAN ECONOMIC HISTORY HUB. The purpose of the Eastern European Economic History Hub is to facilitate the debate on the economic development of Eastern Europe by promoting novel methodological advancements and connecting peers writing about the region from the Eastern and Western perspectives. The Hub intends to cater for these needs by providing: a notice board for the relevant events and news; a platform for online publications of datasets; a selection of working papers; and periodic workshops.

The first workshop will take place on July 6–7, 2013 in Warsaw. Warsaw Frontier Research in Economic and Social History (FRESH)

Meeting will be on “Understanding the Economic Development of Eastern Europe.” The meeting will focus on a reconstruction of the accounts of Eastern European growth as well as its socioeconomic context. The purpose of this FRESH meeting is to facilitate the debate on the economic development of Eastern Europe by pursuing novel methodological advancements, and connecting peers from the East and West of Europe.

For more information about the Eastern European Economic History Hub, please visit <http://www.cgeh.nl/eastern-european-economic-history-hub>.

. . .

ONLINE BIBLIOGRAPHY. Financial History Review, published by Cambridge University Press, is pleased to announce the arrival of its online bibliography. The FHR Bibliography is an authoritative guide to works published in the field of financial history since 1990. This consolidated version of the printed bibliography brings together every record since 2000 in a searchable database, producing a rich interactive resource, crucial to the research of scholars interested in the study of financial issues through time.

Access to this database is an automatic benefit available to all online subscribers to the FHR. Please visit: <http://fhrbibliography.cambridge.org>.

. . .

CALL FOR SYLLABI. The teaching section of EH.net is currently undergoing an overhaul. We are currently collecting syllabi from recently taught courses in economic history. Syllabi on any aspect of economic history at the graduate or undergraduate level are welcome. Please email Cong Liu at University of Arizona (congliu@email.arizona.edu) with your submission, university where the course was taught, general area and time period of the material (e.g., United States after 1860, Interwar Europe, etc.), and the level of instruction (e.g., undergraduate or graduate). Finally, please put “EH.net Syllabus” in the subject line.