

THE KENNETH L. TREFFTZS STUDENT AWARD for an outstanding paper in the field of Finance

Faculty members are invited to submit student papers in the field of Finance to be considered for the Kenneth L. Trefftzs Award of the Western Finance Association. The graduate or undergraduate student whose paper is judged most outstanding will be assured of appearing on the Western Finance Association annual meeting program and of having his paper published in the Proceedings Issue of the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis. In addition, this person will receive a cash prize of $100. Those interested in having papers considered for this award should forward, not later than March 1, 1974, three copies to: Professor Les Strickler, Business Administration Department, School of Business and Technology, Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon 97331.

CALL FOR PAPERS--FMA ANNUAL MEETING

The fourth Annual Meeting of the Financial Management Association will be held on October 24-26, 1974, at the Sheraton-Harbor Island Hotel in San Diego, California. The Association's objectives consist of (1) the advancement of knowledge in the area of the financial management of business, non-profit, and governmental organizations, and (2) the provision of a vehicle for the interchange of ideas and experiences between the practicing financial manager and his academic counterpart. The Annual Meeting is a key element in this process.

The program for the meeting will run from Thursday afternoon through Saturday morning and include not only sessions devoted to the formal presentation and evaluation of papers, but also a series of panel discussions and workshops covering a variety of financial managerial issues. Each such session will be designed to include both academicians and practitioners as participants. To that end, both members and non-members of the Association are invited to submit abstracts of proposed papers for review. The abstracts should be no longer than three double-spaced typewritten pages, and should be preceded by a cover page listing the paper's title, the name(s) of the author(s), and the address(es) and telephone number(s) of the author(s). They should be mailed to:

Professor Wilbur G. Lewellen
Chairman, FMA Program Committee
Sloan School of Management
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
50 Memorial Drive
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

The deadline for submission is March 1, 1974. In addition, individuals who do not wish to present a formal paper, but who would like to act as discussants for papers in a particular area--or who desire to organize a panel or workshop session dealing with a specific topic--are invited to submit that information as well, also the above address. Selected papers from the program will be published in the journal of the Association, Financial Management.

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPATION

The Eastern Finance Association will hold its 1974 Annual Meeting in Pittsburgh on April 18-20, 1974. Please mark it on your calendar now. Last year's meeting in Connecticut clearly indicated that the Eastern Finance Association has an important role to play in professional development. Participation by established scholars and new professionals creates a blend from which all members can benefit. The EFA is sufficiently large to produce diverse and quality programs yet not so big as to be overwhelming. Everyone is an active participant.

Call for Participation and Papers

Please indicate your interest in participation in the 1974 program. All topic areas in Finance are encouraged. For those who wish to present a paper, please submit an abstract prior to February 4, 1974. Abstracts should be submitted in the following form:

1. Typed, single space, 250-300 words, three copies
2. At the top of the abstract, type the title, followed by the author's name, institutional affiliation, complete mail address, and complete telephone number.

The decisions will be announced by February 18, 1974.

Submit abstracts to: Professor Neil B. Murphy
