TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts are sent to referees anonymously and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages 8½ × 11" in dimension. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is included.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of the AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application.

first volume of the collected works

Collected Works of Velimir Khlebnikov

Volume I: Letters and Theoretical Writings
Translated by Paul Schmidt
Edited by Charlotte Douglas

The 117 letters published here for the first time in English reveal an ebullient, humane, impractical, but deliberate working artist; the theoretical writings frame the creative output of the man dubbed the "King of Time" by his fellow Futurists.

A Fugitive from Utopia

The Poetry of Zbigniew Herbert
Stanislaw Baranczak

This is the first book-length study in English of the foremost Polish poet still residing in his native land, and supplies a political, cultural, and thematic context for Herbert's poetry.

Language in Literature

Roman Jakobson
Edited by Krystyna Pomorska
and Stephen Rudy

For the first time, a comprehensive collection of all of Jakobson's major essays on the intertwining of language and literature is presented here in English.

The Origin of the Communist Autocracy

Political Opposition in the Soviet State
First Phase, 1917-1922

Leonard Schapiro
Second Edition

"The story of how and why Lenin defeated his rivals for power is told . . . with a wealth of detailed and often new information. His book is a first-rate contribution not only to Russian history but also to the study of total power." —Russian Review
