We specialize in economic literature including both the history of economics and economic history. We deal in books of all periods to about 1950, including rare books, first editions and fine scholarship in original or out-of-print editions.

We issue a variety of catalogues which are free upon request. It is important that you specify the type of book, periods, etc., that interest you.

We are regular and eager buyers of quality material, whether it be a single item of importance or an entire library. Your offers will receive careful and prompt attention.

A History of Economic Theory and Method,

Fourth Edition

ISBN 021327- 5

Robert B. Ekelund, Jr.

Robert F. Hébert

A revision of a highly successful undergraduate text that provides an in-depth survey of the complete range of economic ideas from ancient times to present. Students will come to understand how past analytic contributions, those that have successfully entered mainstream economics and those that have not, have shaped contemporary economic theory.

New to the Fourth Edition

- ◇ "Force of Ideas" designed to connect key ideas to current economic thought and practice.
- ◇ "Method Squabbles" presenting competing techniques of authoritative economic writers.
- ◇ Revised "Notes for Further Reading" designed to assist students in beginning term papers.
- ◇ Complete Instructor's Manual, by Audrey B. Davidson, University of Louisville, offering chapter summaries, examination questions, discussion questions, suggested term paper topics and ideas for extending your lectures!

We're making history with our companion volume:
