

Justice in Lüritz

Experiencing Socialist Law in East Germany

Inga Markovits

"Justice in Lüritz provides a fascinating perspective on everyday life in East Germany—its petty squabbles, its dictatorial character, and its citizens' efforts to carve out a space for themselves. Engagingly written and discerning, this is a major accomplishment."

—Konrad H. Jarausch, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

"Markovits has a wonderful, elegant, moving style; and the whole enterprise is informed by a passion for understanding, a gift for generalization, and a deep knowledge of the society and its people."

—Lawrence M. Friedman, Stanford Law School

Woman Lawyer

The Trials of Clara Foltz

BARBARA BABCOCK

"Barbara Babcock conjures and brings to life a nearly-forgotten feminist hero. This account of Clara Foltz's rise from an under-educated farmer's wife to an icon of the California women's movement and a national public intellectual is both riveting and strangely familiar."

International Journal of Cultural Property

Published for the International Cultural Property Society

EDITOR:

ALEXANDER A. BAUER, Queens College, CUNY, USA

International Journal of Cultural Property provides a vital, international, and multidisciplinary forum for the broad spectrum of views surrounding cultural property, cultural heritage, and related issues.

Its mission is:

- to develop new ways of dealing with cultural property debates
- to be a venue for the proposal or enumeration of pragmatic policy suggestions
- to be accessible to a wide audience of professionals, academics, and lay readers

This peer-reviewed journal publishes original research papers, case notes, documents of record, chronicles, conference reports, and book reviews.

Contributions come from the wide variety of fields implicated in the debates - law, anthropology, public policy, archaeology, art history, preservation, ethics, economics, museum-, tourism-, and heritage studies - and from a variety of perspectives and interests - indigenous, Western, and non-Western; academic, professional and amateur; consumers and producers - to promote meaningful discussion of the complexities, competing values, and other concerns that form the environment within which these disputes exist.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited article manuscripts for review, but commission all book reviews. Authors should submit their manuscripts online at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Step-by-step instructions on the website explain the submission process. Manuscripts must be double-spaced typescript throughout, with citations prepared according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. The Review's style guides for articles and book reviews are available on the LHR web page at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Please use word processing. Submitted manuscripts are subject to double-blind peer review; authors should therefore identify themselves on the title page only. Accepted manuscripts are copyedited for style but not substance; authors remain responsible for citation accuracy and for all statements of fact or opinion. Law and History Review will not consider any manuscript concurrently submitted for publication elsewhere. Submission of a manuscript is understood to commit its author to publish the manuscript in Law and History Review if accepted by the editor.

American Society for Legal History

The American Society for Legal History is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to fostering scholarship, teaching, and study concerning the law and institutions of all legal systems, both Anglo-American and international. Founded in 1956, the Society sponsors the journal and Studies in Legal History, a series of book-length monographs available to ASLH members at substantial prepublication discounts. In addition, the Society holds an annual meeting to promote scholarship and interaction among teachers, practitioners, and students interested in legal history, and publishes a semiannual newsletter reporting developments in the field. For further information concerning the Society, please write: Sally Hadden, Department of History, Western Michigan University, 4301 Friedmann Hall, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5334, USA.

To become a member of the Society or to renew your membership please complete, print out, and mail the following form to: Cambridge University Press, Attention: Customer Services, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, NY 10994-2133, USA; or print it out and fax it to: 845-353-4141.
