

The charge for overnight accommodation, basic meals, tea and coffee, will be £20 per person. There will also be a registration fee of £2 (£1 for graduate student members). It has been agreed that, to minimise losses to the Society, Conference charges as well as registration should be paid in advance. They should be sent (with a cheque made out to 'Hegel Society of Great Britain') to Dr. David Lamb, Department of Philosophy, The University, Manchester, M13 9PL.

Internationale Hegel-Gesellschaft: 1984 Congress

The next congress of the IHG (after the Athens meeting reported by Arnór Hannibalsson in the last issue of the HSGB Bulletin) will be held in Rotterdam from 15 to 19 April 1984. Its theme is 'The System of Needs - Hegel's Philosophy of Family and Civil Society'. Experts in that field of Hegel's philosophy have been approached with a request for papers. Others who would like to be considered or want information about the congress should contact the Chairman of the IHG at the following address:

Professor Dr. H. Kimmerle,
Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam,
Centrale Interfaculteit,
Postbus 1738,
NL 3000 DR Rotterdam.

The offers of papers will be considered at the end of September.

Symposium on Hegel and Whitehead: Call for Papers

An International Symposium on Hegel and Whitehead, organised in cooperation with the Hegel Society of America and the Center for Process Studies, will take place at Fordham University, Bronx, New York on June 2 - 6, 1984.

1. PURPOSE

To convene leading European and American scholars conversant with either or both these philosophers, in order to discuss comparative aspects and offer critical assessments of their contributions to contemporary (post-Kantian) systematic and speculative philosophy.

2. AREAS OF DISCUSSION

- I. Epistemology / Philosophy of Mind
- II. Metaphysics / Cosmology
- III. Ethics / Political Philosophy
- IV. Philosophy of Science / Philosophy of Nature
- V. Philosophy of History / Philosophy of Culture
- VI. Philosophy of Religion / Philosophical Theology

3. PARTICIPATION

Persons interested in participating in this symposium are requested to submit an abstract (max. 250 words) in one of the six designated categories. Abstracts must include author's name, current mailing address, telephone, and institutional affiliation. Abstracts must be sent to the symposium coordinator by or before SEPTEMBER 1, 1983; participants will be notified by approximately NOVEMBER 1, 1983; working copies of symposium papers must then be mailed to the symposium coordinator by or before MARCH 15, 1984 in order to confirm participation.

A volume of essays will be published in conjunction with this symposium. Participation in the symposium is not required, nor does it guarantee publication. Those wishing to submit a paper for this volume are requested to follow the instructions above, but indicate "For Publication Only" in the upper right corner of the abstract.

The coordinator of the Hegel/Whitehead Symposium is:

Professor George R. Lucas, Jr.,
Department of Philosophy,
University of Santa Clara,
Santa Clara, CA 95053, U.S.A.

An introductory paper is available on request.

Hegel Society of America: Conference on 'Hegel's Philosophy of Spirit'

First Call for Papers

The Hegel Society of America will hold its eighth biennial conference at Russell Sage College in Troy, New York, on 4 - 6 October 1984. The conference theme is Hegel's philosophy of spirit. Papers should focus on Hegel's Encyclopedia, volume III, or consider other works in relation to its themes and issues. It is planned that the program will be balanced among subjective, objective, and absolute spirit.

Papers should be submitted (four copies to the Program Chair, Professor Peter G. Stillman, Department of Political Science, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, New York 12601, by 29 February 1984. Each will be refereed by the Program Committee, and a decision rendered around 15 May 1984.

Submission and acceptance of a paper assumes that the author will present it in no more than 30 minutes reading time at the conference, will submit a final draft for editing into the Proceedings within a month after the conference, and will reserve first publication for the Proceedings.
