African Studies Association

The Journal of the African Studies Association

The mission of the ASR is to publish the highest quality articles and book and film reviews in all academic disciplines that are of interest to the interdisciplinary audience of members of the African Studies Association (ASA). Manuscripts that may be of high quality but in the editors' judgment have an appeal only to a single disciplinary audience will not be considered. The editors welcome manuscript submissions from scholars everywhere, whether or not they are members of the ASA. Each manuscript is sent out to a panel of peer reviewers whose judgment the editors rely upon in deciding whether to accept the manuscript for publication.

Manuscripts and correspondence about them should be sent to the editors. A manuscript may be submitted electronically as an attachment to an e-mail message, or via the post. In the latter case, please send four copies. The peer review process proceeds more quickly for those manuscripts submitted electronically.

The ASR will only consider manuscripts for review that meet the following conditions:

- The work is submitted by its author or co-authors and not by a proxy.
- The work is original and has not been published elsewhere either in whole or in part.
- The work is not currently under consideration for publication with another journal or publisher.

Upon submitting a manuscript for editorial consideration, authors must include a statement declaring that the submission meets these conditions.

Format requirements are spelled out in the Style Guide, published in the September 2000 issue (Vol. 43, No. 2), and on the journal's Web site:

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

The United States Postal System does not forward periodicals. We must receive written notification from you at least five weeks in advance of any change of mailing address. Failure to notify us of your correct mailing address will result in suspension of your membership mailings until we receive such notification. We can make address changes only when current dues are paid. Domestic claims for non-receipt of issues must be made to the Association's office within six months of publication (overseas claims, one year). Copies of the Review damaged in the mail will be replaced without charge.

The African Studies Review is published three times a year (April, September, and December) by the African Studies Association, Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Douglass Campus, 132 George St., New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1400, USA. Articles in the Review represent neither the views of the African Studies Association nor those of its officers; responsibility for opinions expressed and for the accuracy of facts published rests solely with the individual authors.

Once permission is secured, whether for republication in whole or in part, publishers also must acknowledge prior publication in the African Studies Review by author, title, volume, number, date, and inclusive pagination.

Authors whose works are published in ASA journals may duplicate and distribute their own works to their own classes, to their own Web sites, or to their own institution's Web site without seeking the publisher's permission, but they must cite details of publication in the specific journal by author, title, volume, number, date, and inclusive pagination.

ASA members who wish to duplicate and distribute articles published in any ASA journal for their own courses may do so without seeking permission from the ASA, but they must cite details of publication in the specific journal by author, title, volume, number, date, and inclusive pagination.

FROM THE EDITORS

With this issue we are very pleased to welcome John Lemly as the Book Review Editor for the African Studies Review. We look forward to a long and fruitful collaboration as all the editors seek to publish the very best scholarship on Africa in our journal.

John Lemly is a professor of English and African studies and Chair of the English Department at Mount Holyoke College. From 2002 to 2006 he directed the Five College African Scholars Program with funding from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. The program brought young scholars to the Five Colleges from the continent for semester-long fellowships to work on research and writing projects. Trained in British and American drama, John shifted his own professional focus after Fulbright sabbaticals in Ghana in the 1990s and more recently at the University of Fort Hare, South Africa. He writes on drama and fiction in West and southern Africa.
