Slaves, Peasants and Capitalists in Southern Angola 1840-1926

W. G. CLARENCE-SMITH

This penetrating examination of the history of the colonial conquest of a neglected region of Angola makes use of recent advances in Marxist theory to question the established historiography of 'African resistance'. Dr Clarence-Smith looks at the effects of local social structures on the attitudes of white settlers and on the life of the African peasant society

Islam and Tribal Art in West Africa

RENE A. BRAVMANN

A paperback edition of Professor Bravmann's important study which revises accepted opinion of the influence of Islam on the visual arts in West Africa.

'Throughout the book Bravmann's arguments are so well constructed and his amassed evidence so convincing that his conclusions appear unquestionable, even obvious.'

Yoruba Myths

ULLI BEIER

This collection of myths—some of them simple, strong pieces of narrative, others mysterious, poetic and often amusing—illustrates the religion and thought of the Yoruba people. Collected and translated by authors and artists long familiar with Yoruba culture, the myths are illustrated with drawings of Yoruba motifs.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions to the Journal are welcomed. They may be submitted in either English or French. They should not exceed about 6000 words (excluding footnotes), except with the prior approval of the Editors. A summary of the contents of the article, not exceeding about 300 words in length, should be attached on a separate sheet. Contributors are asked to observe closely the conventions listed in the Notes for Contributors, Vol. XV, pp. 173–4. It is essential that contributors observe these conventions, as the Journal now goes straight into page proof. This severely limits the number of corrections which are possible.

Page proofs will be sent, if necessary by airmail, to each contributor (or his nominee) provided that the Editors have been given an address through which he can be reached without delay. Corrections should be kept to the minimum, and should be corrections, not new material. If they are to be incorporated in the master proof corrected by the Editors, it is important that the contributor should return the page proofs, by airmail if necessary, to the Editor named when they are sent out (and not to the Cambridge University Press), within ten days of his receipt of them.

Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free offprints. Additional offprints may be obtained at reasonable cost, provided that they are ordered before publication on the special form sent out with the page proofs.

All contributions and books for review should be addressed to The Editors, The Journal of African History, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, London, W.C.1.
