Life and Death on Mt. Everest

Sherpas and Himalayan Mountaineering
Sherry B. Ortner

For more than a century, climbers from around the world have journeyed to test themselves on Mt. Everest's treacherous slopes, enlisting the expert aid of the Sherpas who live in the area. Drawing on years of field research in the Himalayas, renowned anthropologist Sherry Ortner presents a compelling account of the evolving relationship between the mountaineers and the Sherpas.

Ortner traces the political and economic factors that led the Sherpas to join expeditions and examines the impact of climbing on their traditional culture, religion, and identity.

Literature and Society

Advanced Reader of Modern Chinese Chih-p'ing Chou, Ying Wang, and Xuedong Wang

Literature and Society, a textbook designed for upper-level students, usually in their fourth year of studying Chinese, contains literary works and essays related to the social sciences. It reflects the social issues China has faced in recent years and represents a new approach to introducing students to various aspects of Chinese society. It is the latest textbook in the series produced by the Princeton University Chinese Linguistics Project and published by Princeton University Press.

"A wonderful textbook for an advanced Chinese language course."—Baozhang He, Director, Chinese Language Program, Harvard University

Paper $49.50 ISBN 0-691-01044-7 Due September

A New China

Intermediate Reader of Modern Chinese Chih-p'ing Chou, Joanne Chiang, and Jianna Eagar

A New China, written from the perspective of a foreign student who has just arrived in China, has been designed to provide up-to-date material on the changing face of China. As in previous textbooks in this series, A New China aims to provide a solid foundation in grammar and pronunciation. As a new feature, the textbook includes vocabulary words on the same page as the lesson text. It is appropriate for intermediate-level students.

"A very well-written and thoughtfully compiled intermediate-level Chinese language textbook."—Baozhang He, Director, Chinese Language Program, Harvard University
