This new journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from 1650 onwards, with primary attention to Europe and the United States but also to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. It enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings.

Modern Asian Studies

Modern Asian Studies promotes original, innovative and rigorous research on the history, sociology, economics and culture of modern Asia. Covering South Asia, South-East Asia, China, Japan and Korea, the journal is published in six parts each year. It welcomes articles which deploy inter-disciplinary and comparative research methods. Modern Asian Studies specialises in the publication of longer monographic essays based on path-breaking new research; it also carries substantial synoptic essays which illuminate the state of the broad field in fresh ways. It contains a book review section which offers detailed analysis of important new publications in the field.

Submissions

Authors are invited to submit unpublished papers only, and which are not on offer to any other publisher. Copyright of published articles is assigned to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) on receipt from the author of a signed Copyright Assignment form. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

The Editor welcomes expression of all shades of opinion, but responsibility for them rests with their author. The Editorial Board regrets that it is not able to relay reports for articles not accepted for publication. All correspondence should be addressed to:

Dr Joya Chatterji at modernasianstudies@cambridge.org

Text and Manuscript Preparation

All articles (text, notes and references) must be clearly typed in double spacing throughout, including footnotes. Submissions must be submitted as an email attachment in Word. Spelling, dates, references and footnote numbers should be checked for accuracy. The use of diacritical marks, italics and capital letters should be kept to a minimum. References repeated in the footnotes should be by author and short title; or the Harvard system of citation may be used.

The title of the article, the author's name, affiliation, full postal address and corresponding email address, should be typed at the beginning of the article. An abstract of between 100 and 250 words summarising the contents of the article should be typed before the main text. Sub headings must be used for long articles. Do not use Roman Numerals to divide papers into sections.

Tables should be clearly laid out and numbered consecutively. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted. All figures and totals should be checked for accuracy.

Figures should be supplied as electronic files in either TIFF or EPS format, scanned at a minimum of 320dpi. They should be clearly numbered with an accompanying figure legend. Each figure should be cited at least once in the text. The spelling of place names should be consistent with that used in the text.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must submit an electronic copy and should ensure that the final manuscript includes the following:

- Full title
- Author name, affiliation, full postal address and email address
- Abstract of 100–200 words
- List of references
- Sub section headings
- All figures and tables (with captions and consecutively numbered)

Proofs

First proofs in PDF format only will be sent to the author who will be expected to return them to the Editor within three days. Authors should note that no substantive alterations or additions can be made to first proofs, and should ensure that their final submissions are thoroughly checked for accuracy.

Offprints

Each author will receive a PDF file of his or her published article and a copy of the journal issue in which it appears.

COPYING
