Du Bois Review: Social Science Research on Race

Published for the W.E.B. Du Bois Institute for African and African American Research, Harvard University

Editors

Lawrence D. Bobo, Harvard University, USA

Michael C. Dawson, University of Chicago, USA

Du Bois Review: Social Science Research on Race (DBR) is an innovative periodical that presents and analyzes the best cutting-edge research on race from the social sciences. It provides a forum for discussion and increased understanding of race and society from a range of disciplines, including but not limited to economics, political science, sociology, anthropology, law, communications, public policy, psychology, and history. Each issue of DBR opens with remarks from the editors concerning the three subsequent and substantive sections: STATE OF THE DISCIPLINE, where broad-gauge essays and provocative think-pieces appear; STATE OF THE ART, dedicated to observations and analyses of empirical research; and STATE OF THE DISCOURSE, featuring expansive book reviews, special feature essays, and occasionally debates. Many issues also now include a conversation between Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. and an eminent scholar on broad areas of research regarding race.

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.

Studies in American Political Development

Editors

Daniel Carpenter, Harvard University, USA

Elisabeth Clemens, University of Chicago, USA

Scott James, University of California, Los Angeles, USA

Studies in American Political Development (SAPD) publishes scholarship on political change and institutional development in the United States from a variety of theoretical viewpoints. Articles focus on governmental institutions over time and on their social, economic and cultural setting. In-depth presentation in a longer format allows contributors to elaborate on the complex patterns of state-society relations. SAPD encourages an interdisciplinary approach and recognizes the value of comparative perspectives.

A 'Notes and Comments' section provides a forum for shorter pieces and responses from readers to points made in articles or reviews.

1. Submissions

Papers should be submitted via the following website <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstud>. Authors who do not yet have an account on the online submission site will need to register before submitting a manuscript. If you are unsure about your login details or whether you have an account or not, please use the password help field on the login page. Do not create a new account if you are unsure.

If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact ScholarOne support at <http://mchelp.manuscriptcentral.com/gethelpnow/question.htm>

Any editorial correspondence should be addressed to: Professor Scott Lucas, W.S.Lucas@bham.ac.uk.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should not exceed 7,000 words.

Manuscripts should be submitted via the online submission system at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstud>. Authors should remove their name from the manuscript and should ensure that their manuscript is fully anonymised.

File names should be of the type `AMSauthor surname.doc` or `.rtf` for ease of identification.

Diagrams, maps, and illustrations should be made into an eps file or a tiff file and the file name should be `AMSauthor surname 1.eps` or `.tif` (where the number is the figure number).

Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.

3. Text preparation

Spelling and punctuation may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout. In either case quotation should follow the style of the original.

Use -ize (as in organize), connection, enquiry, judgement, focussed, role; elite, regime (without accents), but communiqué.

Quotations: Long quotations (i.e., of 50 words or more) will be set apart in smaller type, without quotation marks. They should also be indicated on the typescript. Shorter quotations will be set in the text, with double quotations within quotations, use single inside double.

Punctuation: All commas and periods ending quotations should appear inside the quotation marks; other punctuation goes outside unless it is actually part of the matter quoted.

Ellipsis within a sentence should be indicated by three ... spaced periods. Ellipsis at the end of a sentence should be indicated by three spaced periods following the sentence period, i.e. four periods in all.

Indentation: The first line of articles and of sections within articles and of reviews should not be indented. All other paragraphs begin with indentation.

Dates: 13 January 1976 (but 13 Jan. in footnotes); March 1978; 1920s; 1965–68; 1904–08 (except in headings: 1771–1773); seventeenth century; always abbreviate months in footnotes.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.

Figures: Spell one to ninety-nine in text, except e.g. 75 voted for, 39 against, and 15 abstained. Spell only one to nine in footnotes. 15 percent (but use % in footnotes).

Abbreviations: Mr., Dr., Jr., Sr. (as in Richard Henry Dana, Sr.); but USA, USSR, UN, NATO, ACLS, DAB, PMLA (without periods). Ibid., et al., etc., loc. cit. (Latin with periods).

Tables: Use space rather than vertical rules, unless the latter are absolutely essential sources and notes should appear immediately below each table.

Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively.

Capitalization: southern, northern, southerner, northerner, governor, President of the United States, South, North, Midwest.

Citations should wherever possible be to authoritative editions rather than to paperback reprints of no textual authority.

Books should be cited as follows, complete with publisher's name:

W.R. Brock, American Crisis: Congress and Reconstruction 1865–1867 (London: Macmillan, 1963), 274–83
