

New York History

Welcoming submissions for future issues.

Since 1932, New York History has been the foremost scholarly journal on the past of the Empire State and the Colonies of New York and New Netherland. Now under the leadership of Cornell University Press and the New York History Museum, the journal solicits articles, reviews, and features addressing topics of interest to a growing historical community including scholars, public historians, and museum professionals.

Submissions may be made to:
NYHJ@nysed.gov or mjm475@cornell.edu
Guidelines are available here:
