The Korean War

An International History
William Stueck

This first truly international history of the Korean War argues that by its timing, its course, and its outcome it functioned as a substitute for World War III. William Stueck draws on recently available materials from seven countries, plus the archives of the United Nations, presenting a detailed narrative of the diplomacy of the conflict and a broad assessment of its critical role in the Cold War.

“A work of monumental scholarship.”
—Akira Iriye, Harvard University

Wild Lily, Prairie Fire

China's Road to Democracy,
Yan'an to Tian'anmen, 1942-1989

Edited by Gregor Benton and Alan Hunter

Gregor Benton and Alan Hunter provide here a source book of documents of democratic dissent under Chinese Communism, most of them previously untranslated and difficult to find in the West. Ranging from eye-witness accounts of a massacre to theoretical critiques of Chinese Marxist thought, these essays are among the most powerful and important works of Chinese dissident literature written in this century.

“[A] valuable source book. . . . Highly recommended.”
—Library Journal

Cloth: $49.50 ISBN 0-691-04359-0

The Chinese Reassessment of Socialism, 1976-1992

Yan Sun

A momentous debate has been unfolding in China over the last fifteen years concerning the merits of socialism as a philosophy of social justice and as a program for national development. Here Yan Sun gathers a remarkable group of primary materials, drawn from an unusual range of sources, to present the most comprehensive study of post-Mao reappraisal of China's socialist theory and practice.

“This work is a major effort to trace and evaluate the course of China's continuing reevaluation of socialism. It is a prodigiously and meticulously researched book: there is certainly nothing of comparable scope and detail on this topic presently in print in either English or Chinese.”

—Joseph Fewsmith, Boston University

The U.S. Government and the Vietnam War

Executive and Legislative Roles and Relationships

Part IV: July 1965-January 1968

William Conrad Gibbons

This fourth volume of a five-part policy history of the U.S. government and the Vietnam War covers the core period of U.S. involvement, from July 1965, when the decision was made to send large-scale U.S. forces, to the beginning of 1968, just before the Tet offensive and the decision to seek a negotiated settlement. Using a wide variety of archival sources and interviews, the book examines in detail the decisions of the president, relations between the president and Congress, and the growth of public and congressional opposition to the war.
