

The Balzan-Skinner Lecture in Modern Intellectual History

Created by the generosity of Professor Quentin Skinner after the award of the Balzan Prize, the Balzan-Skinner Lecture allows an early career scholar to spend a sabbatical term or semester in Cambridge in order to work on a discrete piece of research, the result of which is presented in a public lecture and symposium and will be published, subject to peer review, in the Historical Journal.

An appointment is made annually; ‘modern’ is since c. 1500, and ‘early career’ within ten years of attaining the Ph.D. Reimbursement is available to the employing institution to cover the cost of release from academic duties.

The first three holders are Dr Hannah Dawson (History and Philosophy, Edinburgh), Dr Joel Isaac (History, Queen Mary London), and Dr Tim Stanton (Politics, York). The closing date for applications is 1 November 2011. Expressions of interest may be addressed to jobs@hist.cam.ac.uk.

EREH - 2nd Highest Ranked Economic History Journal in latest JCR Reports

European Review of Economic History has established itself as a major outlet for high-quality research in economic history, which is accessible to readers from a variety of different backgrounds. The Review publishes articles on a wide range of topics in European, comparative and world economic history. Contributions shed new light on existing debates, raise new or previously neglected topics and provide fresh perspectives from comparative research. The Review includes full-length articles, shorter articles, notes and comments, debates, survey articles, and review articles. It also publishes notes and announcements from the European Historical Economics Society.

Contemporary European History covers the history of Eastern and Western Europe, including the United Kingdom, from 1918 to the present. By combining a wide geographical compass with a relatively short time span, the journal achieves both range and depth in its coverage. It is open to all forms of historical inquiry - including cultural, economic, international, political and social approaches - and welcomes comparative and transnational analysis. One issue per year explores a broad theme under the guidance of a guest editor. The 2009 issue will examine the historical turning point of '1989' from a Pan-European perspective. The journal regularly features contributions from scholars outside the Anglophone community and acts as a channel of communication between European historians throughout the continent and beyond it.

International Review of Social History

Published for the Internationaal Instituut voor
Sociale Geschiedenis

Editor

Aad Blok, *Internationaal Instituut voor Sociale Geschiedenis,
The Netherlands*

International Review of Social History is one of the leading journals in its field. Truly global in its scope, it focuses on research in social and labour history from a comparative and transnational perspective, both in the modern and in the early modern period, and across periods. The journal combines quality, depth and originality of its articles with an open eye for theoretical innovation and new insights and methods from within its field and from contiguous disciplines. Besides research articles, it features surveys of new themes and subject fields, a suggestions and debates section, review essays and book reviews. It is esteemed for its annotated bibliography of social history titles, and also publishes an annual supplement of specially commissioned essays on a current theme. The 2011 special issue will examine 'The Joy and Pain of Work: Global Attitudes and Valuations, 1500-1650'.

Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US Copyright law) subject to payment to C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 0018-246x/11 $12.00. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge University Press.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 The Historical Journal publishes articles on all aspects of history since the fifteenth century.
- 2 All contributions, correspondence, and books for review should be sent to: The Editors, The Historical Journal, Faculty of History, West Road, Cambridge CB3 9EF. The e-mail address is hj@hist.cam.ac.uk. Fax: +(0) 1223 335968. Please mark faxes "for editors of Historical Journal". Tel No: +44(0) 1223 335347.
- 3 Articles should not exceed 10,000 words and Communications 5,000 words in length. Historiographical reviews should not exceed 8,000 words. Contributions must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of The Historical Journal. Detailed Instructions for Contributors should be consulted at <http://journals.cambridge.org/his>
- 4 Three paper copies of all submissions (articles, communications, review articles, historiographical reviews, single reviews) should initially be submitted. Two of the copies should be anonymous. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged by email; and authors will then usually be asked to submit an electronic copy as an email attachment.
- 5 Submission of material will be taken to attest that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not at present being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.
- 6 The Journal is willing to consider unpublished articles submitted in languages other than English, and in such cases a short resumé (max. one page) in English should accompany the submission. Financial assistance may be offered by the Journal towards the costs of translation into English.
- 7 Figures must be submitted electronically, scanned at a minimum of 320 dpi and saved as either TIFF or EPS files; if you wish to compress them, use lossless compression software such as the LZW compression package. Illustrative material should be numbered as part of a sequence of figures. Figure captions are to be supplied on a separate sheet.
- 8 Contributors are responsible for obtaining permissions to reproduce all material for which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included.
- 9 The Editors endeavour to provide a decision on contributions within three months, and thereafter to publish those accepted within eighteen months. They reserve the right to change publication date at short notice, owing to space constraints and the need to achieve balance of content.
