The British and Irish Association of Law Librarians was founded in 1969 to promote the better administration and exploitation of law libraries and legal information units.

Full membership is open to persons and institutions engaged in the provision or exploitation of legal literature. Associate membership is open to individuals and institutions not so engaged, but who support the aims of the Association. Members are entitled to participate in Association activities, about which they are automatically notified.

Further information and membership application forms may be obtained from the Administrator at the above address.

Intellectual Property and Technology Direct

Better by design!

"...as we move to an information-based economy [IP law] will become as central as the law relating to land tenure was in the seventeenth century, or company law is today ..."

From Get ahead - get a security blanket by John Naughton, Observer, Sunday June 24, 2001

Butterworths online service, Intellectual Property and Technology Direct, will enable you to stay at the forefront of legislative changes and developments in EU and UK case law, providing the vital information you need to effectively advise your clients.

How your life will be made easier:

-  Up to date summaries focus attention on current IP and technology UK and EU cases and legislation, as well as legal and professional news.
-  Access an extensive archive of UK and EU case materials dating from 1936 and legislation at the touch of a button, thus avoiding laborious research.
-  Let the experts do the work for you - the service includes commentary in the form of Laddie, Prescott & Vitoria: The Modern Law of Copyright and Designs (3rd edn, 2000) and Morcom, Roughton and Graham: The Modern Law of Trade Marks.
-  Leading practitioners discuss influential cases and legislative developments, guaranteeing access to current authoritative guidance.

Prices for a single user start from £1,250 per annum
