The Socialist People's Car

Automobiles, Shortages and Consent in the Czechoslovak Road to Mass Production

Valentina Fava

From 1918 to 1968, Czechoslovak auto manufacturing was marked by the growing influence of the American model of mass production and by the Sovietization of Czechoslovak society and industry. Valentina Fava examines how the stratification of foreign technical and organizational knowledge shaped Czechoslovak car production practices.

MODERN WAR STUDIES

The Stalingrad Cauldron

Inside the Encirclement and Destruction of the 6th Army

Frank Ellis

"Ellis has succeeded in uncovering a number of previously unavailable or neglected sources that he uses to good effect in illuminating often overlooked aspects of the battle for Stalingrad. Taken together, they offer valuable and fascinating insights into the myriad personal stories and daily struggles for survival in the Stalingrad cauldron."—Stephen G. Fritz, author of Ostkrieg: Hitler's War of Extermination in the East

"Ellis provides a mountain of new material, plus fresh interpretations of a wide range of topics. . . . An essential volume for all students of the Eastern Front."—Robert M. Citino, author of The Wehrmacht Retreats: Fighting a Losing War, 1943

544 pages, 44 photos, 50 tables, Cloth $39.95

The Hundred Day Winter War

Finland's Gallant Stand against the Soviet Army

Gordon F. Sander

"An exciting, imaginative, and wide-ranging account of the Winter War. Sander's gripping study of this short but epic conflict is hard to put down."—Evan Mawdsley, general editor of the Cambridge History of the Second World War

"Sander puts a human face on this controversial struggle between a Finnish 'David' and Soviet 'Goliath.' Well written, clear, and poignant, this is social history at its best."—David M. Glantz, author of The Stalingrad Trilogy

400 pages, 45 photos, 6 maps, Cloth $39.95

LINA & SERGE

THE LOVE & WARS OF LINA PROKOFIEV by SIMON MORRISON

“In the hagiographic hall of fame that is the Russian artist’s wife, Lina Prokofiev is odd woman out. Her story almost cannot be believed . . . Biography does not get more important than this.”

— CARYL EMERSON, author of Mikhail Bakhtin and The Life of Musorgsky

“An attractive young cosmopolitan singer lands her man, the famous composer, and ends up with him in Moscow — and then alone in the gulag. Simon Morrison has given us her story, including the parts that were too painful for her to remember. An engrossing tale, beautifully told.”

—SHEILA FITZPATRICK, professor emerita of Soviet history,
University of Chicago
