

About the MLA Convention

THE MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION CONVENTION, FIRST HELD in 1883, is an annual gathering of teachers and scholars in the field of language and literature study. The convention enables members of the profession to share their ideas and research with colleagues from other universities and colleges. Sessions will be in the Washington State Convention Center and the Sheraton Grand Seattle. The exhibit hall and the MLA Career Center will be in the Washington State Convention Center. Sessions begin at 12:00 noon on 9 January, and there are workshops at 8:30 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. The last sessions will end at 3:00 p.m. on 12 January.

Convention sessions are organized by MLA members, but non-members are welcome to attend. All participants—members and nonmembers alike—must pay registration fees. Registrants receive badges, which entitle convention attendees to gain admittance to sessions, the MLA Career Center, and the exhibit hall. Registrants who lose their badges may purchase replacements at the registration areas.

Sessions

Most sessions at the 2020 MLA convention were arranged by the membership at large, either through the association's forums or by individual members. Attendance is open to all convention registrants, but only current MLA members may organize or participate formally in sessions. On occasion, the membership requirement is waived for individuals whose main interests are in other disciplines. The kinds of sessions arranged for this year's convention are described below.

Forum Sessions

MLA forums encompass the scholarly and professional concerns of the association; to this end, their executive committees advise on specific research and pedagogical needs, propose to the MLA Executive Council programs that might be undertaken on behalf of their forums, compile information of interest to their members for publication in MLA periodicals or in special mailings, and elect forum representatives to serve in the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Members who have suggestions for a forum's sessions or who would like to participate in those sessions should correspond with the 2020 secretary of the appropriate forum, since 2020 secretaries become chairs for the 2021 convention (see the list of executive committee members that follows the sessions listing). For forums approved in 2019, the executive committee members will be listed on the MLA Web site in January 2020.

Plenaries

Arranged by forums or individual members, plenaries are meetings on topics of broad interest. The MLA executive director, with the assistance of the Program Committee, has final responsibility for approving plenaries.

Special Sessions

MLA members whose scholarly or professional interests are not adequately accommodated through convention programs arranged by the forums may propose special sessions. These sessions are the most specialized of all convention meetings and are intended to enable participants to exchange ideas on specific topics.

Members who wish to organize a special session for the 2021 convention should carefully read the guidelines, available on the MLA Web site (www.mla.org/organizing-meetings/), governing the organization of these sessions and should observe the deadlines for 2020–21 announced on the MLA Web site. Proposals for special sessions must be submitted on the forms provided for this purpose; the forms and other useful information about submitting a proposal will be available on the MLA Web site.

Allied Organization Sessions

Other scholarly, business, or social meetings are arranged in conjunction with the MLA convention by officially recognized allied organizations. Typically, these organizations are learned societies or professional associations whose purposes are closely allied with those of the MLA.

Posters

Posters are proposed by individual members who wish to share their pedagogical, institutional, or research-oriented projects. Presenters will be available during a set time to discuss the projects with attendees one-on-one.

Working Groups

Working groups are proposed by individual members who post a call for participation and then engage eight to twelve participants to meet together to discuss their work in two or three sessions during the convention, working toward a collective project or outcome. Working groups extend over more than one session, so participants in a working group will not be able to participate in any other sessions.
