THERE IS GREAT NEED in London of barristers, solicitors, and students who would be prepared on not more than one night a week to give free legal advice to poor people at Cambridge House, Camberwell, and similar institutions, where essential help is provided for people who have no other means of obtaining opinion or redress. The work is intensely practical and is limited to advising.

Enquiries should be directed to B. F. MENDEL (Trinity), 1 New Square, Lincoln's Inn, W.C.2, the Treasurer of the Bentham Committee, which acts as the executive of the London Council of the Poor Man's Lawyer.

It is regretted that the exigencies of the war and its aftermath have reduced the space available for book reviews and made it necessary to give no more than short notices of some of the works received for review.
