

KEEGAN'S BOOK SERVICES
– African Book Specialists –

For over a decade Keegans Book Services have specialised in the field of Southern African books. Our catalogues of new and forthcoming Africana titles have become indispensable guides to librarians and scholars throughout the world.

Offering a reliable and efficient link between you and South Africa's publishing activities, our free service includes:—

- * An exhaustive list of Southern African publications
- * A bibliographical reference service
- * A catalogue that lists not only titles from mainstream publishing houses, but a wide range of publications from research bodies, university institutes and political organisations of all persuasions.
- * Our quarterly 'Southern African Book Review' — available by subscription — containing a comprehensive selection of book reviews from leading newspapers and journals, a copy of the literary magazine 'Frontline Books' and news of regional publishing interest

MICROFORM ACADEMIC PUBLISHERS

New titles in our two extensive microfilm series — Government Publications and Annual Departmental Reports relating to African Countries prior to Independence which will appear during 1985 are:

Government Publications relating to Northern Rhodesia
(Editor: Dr. Andrew Roberts)

Government Publications relating to Cape Colony:
Part III Statutes 1652-1910
(Editor: Professor Shula Marks)

Annual Departmental Reports relating to Southern Rhodesia
(Editor: Dr. Robin Palmer)

Further material relating to the Cape and other Southern African countries, especially Natal, will be published during the course of 1985/6

Major New Series

We are pleased to announce that we have recently concluded an agreement with the distinguished international journalist and Africanist Colin Legum to publish on microfilm his unique collection of material relating to the whole of Africa from the 1930s to date. The microfilm will be published in sections, the first four of which are:

Colin Legum's Writings from the 1930s to date
(Journal articles, broadcast talks, speeches, newspaper articles, books, etc.)

South Africa from the 1930s to the 1980s
(Arguably the most comprehensive collection of printed material relating to Southern Africa in existence)

Pan-Africanism and Regionalism
African Liberation Movements

These will be published during the course of 1985/6 at regular intervals

For copies of our new African Studies catalogue, detailed brochures and current price lists, please write to Angela Jarman or Sylvia Cornfield at Microform Academic Publishers. We will be happy to give you up-to-the-minute information on all publications, prices and future plans.
