Tanzania Under Colonial Rule

Editor: Dr M H Y Kaniki

A volume of ten essays which fill an important gap in the colonial history of Tanzania. They provide a critical analysis of the political economy of colonialism and show the significance of the economic base during the different phases of the colonial period.

ORIENTAL DOCUMENTS II
THE AMHARIC LETTERS OF EMPEROR THEODORE OF ETHIOPIA TO QUEEN VICTORIA AND HER SPECIAL ENVOY

GIRMA-SELASSIE ASFAW and DAVID L. APPLEYARD

in collaboration with

EDWARD ULLENDORFF

When Emperor Theodore of Ethiopia failed to receive a reply to letters despatched to Queen Victoria and the British Government, his suspicion and anger were aroused and he imprisoned the British Consul as well as a number of European missionaries and artisans. As soon as the British Government received news of these events, it despatched a reply, signed by the Queen herself, to the Ethiopian monarch's earlier letters and sent it by the hands of Mr. Rassam and two other emissaries. The thirty-three Amharic letters (as well as three in Arabic) from Emperor Theodore to Queen Victoria or to her emissary, Hormuzd Rassam, form the substance of the present monograph.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions to the Journal are welcomed. They may be submitted in either English or French. They should not exceed about 6000 words (excluding footnotes), except with the prior approval of the Editors. A summary of the contents of the article, not exceeding about 300 words in length, should be attached on a separate sheet. Contributors are asked to observe closely the conventions listed in the Notes for Contributors, Vol. XV, pp. 173-4. It is essential that contributors observe these conventions, as the Journal now goes straight into page proof. This severely limits the number of corrections which are possible.

Page proofs will be sent, if necessary by airmail, to each contributor (or his nominee) provided that the Editors have been given an address through which he can be reached without delay. Corrections should be kept to the minimum, and should be corrections, not new material. If they are to be incorporated in the master proof corrected by the Editors, it is important that the contributor should return the page proofs, by airmail if necessary, to the Editor named when they are sent out (and not to the Cambridge University Press), within ten days of his receipt of them.

Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free offprints. Additional offprints may be obtained at reasonable cost, provided that they are ordered before publication on the special form sent out with the page proofs.

All contributions and books for review should be addressed to The Editors, The Journal of African History, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, London, W.C.1.
