

New Books . . .

H. L. MENCKEN

Iconoclast from Baltimore

Douglas C. Stenerson

An intensive analysis of Mencken's temperament, his career in journalism, his ideas and style. Cloth $7.95

THE SCHLEMEIL AS MODERN HERO

Ruth R. Wisse

The schlemiel in Jewish literature from the Middle Ages to Saul Bellow and Philip Roth. Cloth $5.45

T. S. ELIOT'S INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPMENT, 1922-1939

John D. Margolis

Eliot's editorship of the Criterion and his uncollected prose form the basis of this study linking Eliot's long-standing principles to his conversions to Anglo-Catholic, to dramatist, to social critic and theorist. Cloth $9.50

CONTEXTS OF CANADIAN CRITICISM

Edited by Eli Mandel

Contributors include Northrop Frye, Francis Sparshott, and Marshall McLuhan. Patterns of Literary Criticism series. Cloth $11.75 Paper $3.45

ENGLISH LITERATURE AND BRITISH PHILOSOPHY

Edited by S. P. Rosenbaum

A collection of critical essays which examines the relationship between philosophy and literature from Bacon and Hobbes to Wittgenstein and Virginia Woolf. Cloth $12.50

MODERN FRENCH CRITICISM

From Proust and Valéry to Structuralism

Edited by John K. Simon

René Wellek, Michel Beaujour, Paul de Man, Robert Champigny, and Neal Oxenhandler are a few of the distinguished contributors. Cloth $12.50

LES OEUVRES DE PIERRE DE RONSARD

Text of 1587 French Edition

Edited by Isidore Silver

Now complete in eight volumes. Vol. VIII Cloth $11.50

Booths 64 & 214

The University of Chicago Press

5801 South Ellis Avenue Chicago 60637

4 5 4 5 1 1320

