

Corrigenda

Authors have requested the following corrections to be indicated.

Volume 3 Number 3, Murray et al., Incidental capture of seabirds by Japanese southern bluefin tuna longline vessels in New Zealand waters, 1988–1992: on p. 201, second paragraph, the sentence beginning On Adams Island should read:

On Adams Island, in the Auckland Islands, counts showed a 42% decline in the largest breeding population of Wandering Albatrosses in the world, from 7,000 pairs in 1973 to 4,050 pairs in 1991 . . .

Volume 3 Number 4, Monnet et al., Stability and changes during the twentieth century in the breeding landbirds of Tahiti (Polynesia): on p. 279, acknowledgement should have been made to Mary LeCroy and the American Museum of Natural History for access to archival material on the Whitney South Sea Expedition, and the following reference included:

Quayle, E. H. (ms) Journal of the Whitney South Sea Expedition, Book H (pp. 63–69) and Book I (pp. 284–296). Lodged at the American Museum of Natural History, New York.
