AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

The AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION was organized in 1957 as a non-profit corporation to bring together persons with a scholarly and professional interest in Africa, to provide useful services to the Africanist community, and to publish and distribute scholarly materials on Africa. Membership is open to individuals and institutions.

An Annual Meeting each autumn provides an occasion for panels, plenary sessions and discussion groups, exhibits and films. Participants from North America, Africa and Europe gather for this Meeting which is held in different regions of the US in cooperation with major universities and museums, and under the program direction of a distinguished Africanist. The annual business meeting of the members of the ASA takes place at that time. ASA members register for the Annual Meeting and purchase copies of papers presented at the Meeting at discounted rates.

Members receive three regular publications:

AFRICAN STUDIES REVIEW, published three times yearly, includes review articles, essays of scholarly and bibliographical substance, and reviews of recent books in African studies. Editor: Carol B. Thompson.

ISSUE: A JOURNAL OF OPINION, with two issues annually issues, presents provocative and timely comment on critical developments in Africa and African studies. Editor: Harvey Glickman.

ASA NEWS, a quarterly newsletter, reports current and future activities of the Association, bibliographical and news notes, employment notices, significant correspondence and announcements of concern to the world community of Africanists. Editor: Edna G. Bay.
