In Defense of Christian Hungary
Religion, Nationalism, and Antisemitism,
1890–1944

PAUL A. HANEBRINK

“Hanebrink is right. Until now, no one has adequately demonstrated the overwhelming importance of antisemitism in formulating Catholic nationalist policy. Today, when there seems to be an international effort to awaken the Vatican and the Catholic Church in general to its responsibility for the ‘success’ of the Nazi Holocaust project, Hanebrink’s contribution on the complex Hungarian solution is crucial.”

Ethnic Bargaining
The Paradox of Minority Empowerment

ERIN K. JENNE

“Ethnic Bargaining may be superior to even the best recent books on ethnic conflict in its very impressive base of research. Erin K. Jenne conveys both a breadth and depth of knowledge and offers a really interesting model of ethnic conflict as related to minority radicalization.”

—PATRICK JAMES, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Defending the Border
Identity, Religion, and Modernity in the Republic of Georgia

MATHIJS PELKMANS

“Based on his extensive fieldwork in Ajaria (south-western Georgia), this gifted ethnographer shows how shifting borders—sometimes permeable, other times an insurmountable barrier—shape and reshape identities and cultural understandings. Rich in a sense of place, this is one of the finest evocations of a vital, if damaged, Georgian culture.”

—RONALD GRIGOR SUNY, THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN,

Scholarly Articles Research Alerting from Taylor & Francis

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. Authors should send the final, revised version of their articles in both hard copy paper and electronic disk forms. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on disk. Please print out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Send as a Word or WordPerfect attachment to sosabol@email.uncc.edu or submit two printed copies of the final version with the disk to Steven Sabol, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, NC 28223, USA. Save all files on a standard 3.5 inch high-density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word for Windows or WordPerfect, but can translate from most other common word-processing programs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only". For further details on Electronic Submission, please visit the Taylor & Francis Website at: <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals>
