

Index

- Aano, Jakob, 105, 158–159
Aasen, Ivar, 31, 76
Abitur exams desire to increase graduates, 118 equalization of, 50 for girls, 52
 introduction, 44
 Prussia, 44
“abnormal schools” (abnormskoler), 34
Adenauer, Konrad, 76 agrarian interests political alliances, 17
AKP (Arbeidernes Kommunistiparti), 67 allgemeine Fortbildungsschule, 52
Allgemeiner Deutscher Lehrerinnenverein, 80
Allied Control Council Directive No. 54, 57
allmueskoler, 30, 32, 33
antagonism to comprehensive school reform
 class differences, 146
 ideological arguments, 147 anti-capitalism and educational reform, 122, 129
anti-reform coalitions, 6 anti-socialism, 52
Arbeitsgemeinschaft von Schulpflegschaften im Regierungsbezirk Münster, 136 Arbeitsschule movement, 52 influence in Norway, 40 Archer, Margaret, 8 Arnold, Karl, 57
ascription versus achievement, 60
Association for Freedom of Research, 136
Association of German Catholic Female Teachers (VkdL), 80, 136 antagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
Association of Education and Upbringing, 86, 129
 connections to political parties, 86 consent to comprehensive school reform, 143 opposition to Citizens’ Action movement, 140 support for Hauptschule, 140
Association of Education and Upbringing
 (West Germany), 89
Association of German Lower Secondary
 Schoolteachers, 82
Association of Norwegian Housewives, 215 Association of Norwegian Secondary Schoolteachers, 89, 90
 antagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 Langeland, Kjeld, 104
 leanings and makeup, 90
 objection to nine years of obligatory schooling, 104
 on abolition of grading, 109
 opposition to folkeskole law of 1959, 98
Association of Philologists, 82, 139
 antagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 connections to political parties, 86
 emphasis on Gymnasium, 119–120

- Association of Philologists (cont.)
 leanings and makeup, 89
 opposition to comprehensive schooling, 119
- Association of Philologists (NRW), 86, 121 opposition to cooperative schools, 136
- Association of Philologists (West Germany), 89
- Association of Public Employees (NRW), 85, 86
- Austad, Tore, 113
- Balduin, Albert, 129
- barneskole* (children's school), 1
- BdF, 224
- Beckedorff, Ludolph von, 45
- Bergersen, Birger, 43, 93
- Berufsschulen* (vocational schools), 52
- Bismarck, Otto von, 46
- Bjørnson, Bjørnstjerne, 31
- Blakset, Leiv, 114
- boarding schools, 178–179
- Bondevik, Kjell, 7, 68–72, 104, 105, 109
 Christian schooling and, 154, 158–159 private schooling and, 160 youth school size and, 181
- Borgen, Hans
 on homemaking for boys, 219
- borgerskoler*, 30, 33
- Bovim, Hans, 156
- boy's education, 54, 231
- Brandt, Willy, 83, 202, 210
- Bremen Plan (Bremer Plan), 117–118
- British Butler Act (1944), 42
- Brüning, Heinrich austerity measures and education, 55
- Brunn, Anke, 124
- Brusis, Ilse, 121–122, 140 anti-communist attacks against, 208–209 on coeducation, 233
- Bull, Edvard, 38
 Bull current, 38
- Bull, Trygve, 94–95
- Bund Evangelischer Lehrer*, 85
- Busemeyer, Marius, 7, 10
- case studies as methodology, 252
- Catholic Church education reform, 19
- Catholic consolidation, 48
- Catholic movement (Germany), 17
- Catholic population (Germany 1871–1987), 47–63
- Catholic private schools, postwar funding and reestablishment, 167
- Catholic teachers' associations, 86
- Catholic Teachers' Association, 80
- Catholic Volksschulen (NRW) 1953–69, 165–180
- CDU (NRW), 57, 80, 84
 antagonism to comprehensive school reform, 143
 leadership in government, 89
 leanings and makeup, 76–77, 78
 on common schooling, 168
 on private schools, 169
 on rural school centralization, 187–188 opposition to centralization, 185 opposition to education reforms, 131, 132–133 presence, 76
 rural schooling, 184
 strengthening, 132–133 support for Association of Philologists' opposition to cooperative schools, 136 support for parallel schooling, 132–133
- CDU (West Germany), 89 against social liberal education politics, 206–208 antagonism to comprehensive school reform, 149 anti-communist, 206 concerns for curriculum over organization, 138 cross-class alliance, 149 Hamburg conference (1964), 120 manifesto of 1972 and gender roles, 226–227
 manifesto of 1976, 204
 opposition to education reforms, 120 reform-mindedness, 126–127
- center parties
 defined, 89
 on abolition of grading, 109
- center-periphery cleavage, 17, 88, 249, 251
- crosscutting cleavages, 236
- center-periphery cleavage (Norway), 15, 60 and Labor Party, 236
 education politics, 236
- central schools, 187–188 replacement of Volksschulen, 186–188

- upper-secondary schools, 189
- centralization
 - rural-urban cleavage, 176–184
- centralization of schooling, 191–192
 - and cooperative schools, 192
- Center Party (Germany), 17, 46, 48, 53, 54, 59
- Center Party (Norway), 17, 88, 89, 97
 - consent to comprehensive school reform, 143
 - curricular concerns, 180
 - folkeskole* centralization and, 179–180
 - leanings and makeup, 88
 - on abolition of ability grouping, 113
 - on secular schooling, 152
 - rural strengths, 176
 - school decentralization, 176
 - school size and, 182
 - strength post–Second World War, 66
 - support for nynorsk, 194
- Center Party (NRW), 57, 76
 - on private schools, 169
- Christian democratic hegemony, 24
- Christian Democratic Union (CDU), 6, 17
- Christian democrats (Germany)
 - success in education reform, 64
- Christian Democrats (Norway), 15, 88, 89, 97
 - antagonism toward Labor Party, 114
 - consent to comprehensive school reform, 143
 - leanings and makeup, 88
 - on abolition of ability grouping, 113
 - strength post–Second World War, 66
- Christian education (Norway), 151–160
 - Christian Democrat support for, 151
 - hours required and conflict with
 - comprehensive schooling requirements, 155–156, 158
 - Labor Party (Norway), 151
 - party stances, 151–152, 162
 - role of Christian organizations, 152
- Christian VI, king of Denmark and Norway, 30
- Christians, Clemens, 121
- Christie, Hartvig Caspar, 96–97
- church and school, separation of, 57, 58
- Church of Norway
 - church input into curriculum, 153–155
- Citizens' Action movement, 139–141
 - antagonism to comprehensive school reform, 143
- class cleavage, 17, 34, 60, 88, 89, 251
 - current relevance, NRW, 257
 - Norwegian language struggle, 200–201
 - perpetuation by unequal schooling, 94
 - Prussia, 60
- class differences
 - antagonism to comprehensive school reform, 146
- cleavage structures
 - education politics, 1980s–present, 256–262
- cleavage theory, 1, 3, 11, 13–29
 - and comparative welfare states, 247
 - interdependencies, 15
 - political parties, 15
- cleavages, 22, 23, 60
 - and coalitions, 244
 - center-periphery, 15, 23
 - class cleavage, 17, 34, 60, 88, 89
 - cross-interest coalitions and, 3
 - defined, 14–15
 - gender cleavage, 23
 - rural-urban cleavage, 23
 - salience of, 16–28
 - state-church, 15, 23, 89
- cleavages (Germany)
 - communist-socialist cleavage, 24
 - conservative antagonist alliance, 24
 - cross-interest coalitions, 24
 - state-church cleavage, 24
- cleavages (Norway)
 - education politics, 246
- cleavages (NRW)
 - education politics, 245–246
- cleavages, crosscutting, 234–241
 - expressed in language debates, 236
 - expressed in NRW centralization debates, 236, 237
 - Norwegian class cleavages and, 235–241
 - education policy expressions, 235–241
 - stabilization for coalition building, 234
- coalitions, 13, 15, 22–23
 - and cleavages, 244
 - anti-reform, 6
 - cross-interest coalitions, 20, 21
 - internal CDU coalitions, 150
 - Norwegian Labor party and, 150
 - primary schoolteachers, 3
 - religious population, 3
 - rural populations, 3
 - women's movement, 3

- coeducation, 34, 223
 Catholic opposition to, 225 liberal and social democratic support for, 225 rarer in Catholic areas, 224
- coeducation (NRW)
Gymnasien, 232, 233
Realschulen, 232, 233
- Cologne, 48
- Comintern, 18, 38
- Commission for Educational Planning, 87
 General Education Plan (1973), 129
- common schools, 168
 defined, 165
 FDP support for, 172 population support for, 172
 SPD support for, 172
- common Volksschulen (NRW) 1953–69, 165–180
- communism in Germany communist youth organizations, 202 nonorthodox varieties of communism, 202 “orthodox” communism, 202
- Communist Party (Norway), 67
- communist-socialist cleavage, 17, 250
 in Germany, 202
 NRW education politics, 239
- Comparative Manifesto Project (CMP), 9
- comparative welfare state analysis agrarian parties and, 248 agrarian party involvement, 249
 gender cleavage, 249
 salient cleavages, 248–251
- comprehensive “detracking” reforms, 7
- comprehensive education 1990s reform, 115
 as overcoming class divisions, 38 as practicing “class struggle in the classrooms,” 205 coalitions, 6
 Germany, 61
 in Norway, 1 left party support for, 8 liberal parties and, 6 motivations, 1860s–90s, 34 policy, 43 primary schools (Norway), 60 public support for, 8 right party skepticism of, 8 seen as socialism, 129–130 sidelined by denominational schooling debates, 175 social democracy and, 6 social reforms, 34
 tracking and grouping, 97
- comprehensive school reform consent, 143 equality of opportunity, 142
 ideological arguments, 144–149
 ideological divides within the left, 142 Norwegian left and, 142
 protagonism, 143 role of experimental schools, 147–148 skepticism toward competition, 142 social democrat support for, 142, 144 successful implementations, 6
- comprehensive school reform, antagonism, 143
 Conservative Party (Norway), 145
Hauptschule reform, 145 parental rights, 145
- comprehensive school reform (Germany), 1 antagonists, 143
 consenters, 143
 current-day party stances, 257–258 demand for (Prussia), 48–49 failure of implementation, 6–7
 German left and, 142–144
 NRW, 57
 protagonists, 143
 reduced cleavages, present-day, 257 Reichstag, 52
 teachers’ organizations, present status, 258
 Weimar Republic, 54
- comprehensive school reform (Norway), 1
 antagonists, 144, 145
 class cleavage, 262
 consenters, 144
 current state of, 259–261
 current-day party stances, 261–262
 protagonists, 144
 teachers’ organizations, 261
- comprehensive school reform (NRW), 116–141 continuation as “experimental”, 122–123, 130, 132 end of experimental status, 116
- comprehensive school reform (Prussia) ladder-system of education, 60
- comprehensive schooling seven year, 38

- ten year, 117–118
- comprehensiveness defined, 1
- compromise, 20–21, 23
- Conservative Party (Norway), 15, 31, 38, 43, 66, 89, 106–107
- ability grouping, 103
- antagonism to comprehensive school
reform, 143, 145
- curricular concerns, 113
- education policy manifesto of 1957, 100–101
- founding of, 31
- leanings and makeup, 88
- manifesto of 1973, 111
- manifestos, 103
- on abolition of ability grouping, 113
- on abolition of grading, 108–109
- on differentiation, 103–104
- on secular schooling, 152
- resistance to samnorsk, 194
- strength post–Second World War, 66
- youth school reform and, 93–94
- Continental welfare states, 3
- cooperative comprehensive schools, 133–141
- Catholic opposition to, 139
- CDU (NRW) proposal, 127–128
- CDU shift to opposition, 134
- debate on law to introduce, 134–140
- defined, 134
- introduction to NRW parliament, 134
- leading to integrated comprehensive
schooling, 135
- opposition to, 136–137, 139–141
- passage of law (1977), 139
- perceived as threat to Gymnasium, 139–140
- repeal of law, 141
- rural opposition to, 139
- cooperative schools and centralization of schooling, 192
- cooperative schools (NRW), 87, 116
- Council for Homemaking, 221
- crosscutting cleavages, 262
- and cross-interest coalitions, 244
- gender cleavage (Germany), 240
- welfare state analysis, 251
- cross-interest coalitions, 20
- and crosscutting cleavages, 244
- cultural struggle (Prussia), 46, 48
- curricular reform, failure of, 107
- curriculum (Norway), 92
- curriculum (Prussia) classical languages, 44
- non-pietistic subjects, 46
- religious education, 46
- subjects beyond piety, 32
- curriculum (Reichstag), 52
- curriculum development (1936–9), 40
- Danish-Norwegian church role in education, 30
- Dawes Plan of 1924, 53–55
- DDP, 53, 54
- decentralization, 176–184
- Norwegian party stances, 176–177
- rural schooling (Norway) and, 176–177, 178, 179, 182
- varied meanings, 183
- degree of comprehensiveness age of first selection, 1
- Christian democrats, 7
- Deidesheimer Guidelines of 1969, 126
- denominational schooling, 46, 121
- crosscutting cleavages, 237
- post–Second World War, 59
- secularization of, 118
- denominational schooling (Germany)
NSDAP, 56
- Prussia, 46
- Volksschulen* reform and, 173–175
- Weimar Republic, 54
- denominational schooling (Norway), 30
- denominational schooling (NRW), 117, 163–177
- Catholicism in NRW, 164
- German educational reform, 19
- German history with, 163
- Protestant weak support for, 164–165
- reintroduction of, postwar, 166
- restored in NRW, 58
- denominational schooling (postwar) support by Catholic Church, 166
- detracking and social democrats, 7
- Deutscher Beamtenbund*, 85
- Deutscher Bildungsrat* (West Germany), 87
- Deutscher Lehrerverein* (DLV), 80
- Deutscher Philologenverband*, 82

- differentiation debate (Norway) abolition of permanent ability grouping, 112 end of differentiation, 115 organizational vs. pedagogical, 101–106, 111–116 primary school, 111 youth school, 111
 Djupvik, Olav, 113–114
 DKP, 17, 79
 “orthodox” communism, 202 public employment bans, 210
 Dokka, Hans-Jørgen, 106
 Dørum, Odd Einar, 114–115
 Düsseldorf Agreement of 1955, 57, 120
 dwarf schools, 167, 184, 185
- Education and Science Workers’ Union, 79, 80, 89, 117, 135
 connections to political parties, 85
 protagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 support for integrated comprehensive
 schooling, 121–122
- Education and Science Workers’ Union
 (NRW), 86
 opposition to Citizens’ Action movement, 140–141
- education and state building, 44 “Educational-Political Guidelines” (SPD, 1964), 118
- education politics compromises and coalitions, 246–247
- education politics (Norway) anti-communism, 150
 center-periphery cleavage, 150
 centralization, 150
 coalitions, 150 gender, 150 language, 150
 political parties, 74
 Protestant church and, 76 religion, 150
 rural-urban cleavage, 150 education policy councils, 76 teachers’ associations, 69–88 trade unions, 76
- education politics (NRW) CDU internal coalitions, 150 communist-socialist cleavage, 150
 state-church cleavage, 150
- Education Politics on Clear Paths – a Program of CDU/CSU Priorities (1972), 127
- education reform
 and nation-building, 32 built from prior conflicts, 19–20
 Catholic Church and, 19
 Norway, 1850s–1860s, 32
 Norway, 1860s–1890s, 32
 education reform (Prussia), 45 education reform (West Germany) orientation years/transition, 117 Einheitsschule, 52 term perceived as socialist, 206, 209 Elternverein Nordrhein-Westfalen, 136 enhetsskole, 260
 enhetsskolekomiteen, 37
- equal rights in family and marriage law
 (Germany), 226
- equality of opportunity, 126–127, 142
 debates about how to accomplish, 117–121 through integrated comprehensive
 schooling, 124
- Esping-Andersen, Gøsta, 12, 13, 248
- Evaluation Committee, 107
 on abolition of grading, 110
- Evers, Carl-Heinz, 123
- Experimental Council (Forsøksrådet), 76, 94, 99, 100, 101
 abolition of (1981), 115
- experimental schools (NRW), 118 failures to perform, 132
- fairness of opportunity in contrast to equality of opportunity, 131
- Farmers’ Party (Norway), 38, 41
- FDP (NRW), 57, 80 inclusion of NSDAP officials, 78
 leanings and makeup, 78
 manifesto of 1962, 172
 opposition to Ersatzschulfinanzgesetz, 171 opposition to orientation years, 130 support for centralization, 185
- FDP (West Germany), 60, 89
 consent to comprehensive school reform, 143 divided on cooperative schooling, 136, 137
 leanings and makeup, 89

- liberalization, 124
 manifestos and women, 228
 Open School (Offene Schule), 124–125
 Stuttgart Guidelines for Liberal Education Politics (1972), 124–125 support for cooperative schools, 135 federalism in Germany, 6
Fellesprogrammet, 41 felleskole, 260 female teachers, 34, 69, 80 access to education, 213 cooperative school antagonism, 145 fight for recognition for women's work, 213 support for framhaldsskole, 35, 99
 teacher organizations, 80
 Female Teachers' Association, 213 concern with homemaker education, 215 on comprehensive school reform, 215 Female Teachers' Association (Norway), 89
 opposition to folkeskole law of 1959, 98
 Female Teachers' Organization, 69
 Fernau, Friedrich Wilhelm, 133–134
Filologenes og realistenes landsforening, 69 financial crises (NRW), 132, 148
 First World War, 53 folkehøyskole, 34
folkeskole, 32, 33, 36, 43
 tracking and grouping, 179
folkeskole centralization Center Party (Norway) and, 179–180
 rural schooling (Norway) and, 179–180
Folkeskole Committee, 101 folkeskole law of 1959, 94–99 and Christianity in the curriculum, 152 debate, 96–99 financial and operational concerns, 97–99 language standards, 196 opposition to, 97–99
 opposition to comprehensive schooling, 96–97
 opposition to parallel schooling, 94–96 Førde, Einar, 107–108, 115 fortsettelsesskole, 34
 Fostervoll, Kåre, 42
framhaldsskole, 1, 34, 36, 43
 opposition to folkeskole law of 1959, 99
Framhaldsskolelærerlaget, 69
 Franke, Uwe, 129–130, 140, 206
 Fredriksfryd, Erling, 93–94, 97, 100–101
 French Paul Langevin Commission in 1947, 42 Funcke, Liselotte, 171
 gender cleavage, 17–18, 212, 249–250
 among Norwegian parties, 224 education in Norway, 213–224 education in NRW, 193–234
 education politics, 240 gender roles party manifestos, 226–228
 General German Teachers' Association (Allgemeiner Deutscher Lehrerverein), 48
 Genscher, Hans-Dietrich, 136
 Gerhardsen, Einar, 41
 Geringk-Groht, Silke, 133, 137
 German anti-communism, 201–224 against comprehensive education, 201 as an integrative ideology, 203 effects of East Germany, 202 opposition within political parties, 210–211, 212
 party stances on, 202, 204–205, 208, 209 resolution against KPD members, 202 within the unions, 212–213
 German Committee for the Education and School System, 58, 117
 German Educational Council, 87, 120 integrated comprehensive school experimentation, 122
 Structural Plan for the Education System (1970), 124
 German National People's Party, 54
 German People's Party, 54
 German political parties
 CDU, 24
 Center Party, 17, 46, 53, 54, 59
 Christian Democratic Union (CDU), 17
 Communist Party (DKP), 17 Communist Party (KPD), 17
 DDP, 53, 54
 FDP, 24
 German National People's Party, 54
 German People's Party, 54
 Socialist Workers' Party, 52
 SPD, 24, 52, 53, 54
 German Reich, 46
 German schooling reproduction of inequality in, 6 German workers' unions, 79

- German-Norwegian educational influence, 61
- Germany
- education policy field, post-Second World War, 76–91
 - federalism and institutional stickiness, 6
 - lack of comprehensiveness, 3
 - Nazi era structural legacies, 6
 - role of teachers' unions, 64
 - state-church cleavage, 64
 - unified right, 92
- Giesen, Peter, 187
- Girgensohn, Jürgen, 123, 129, 130, 135
- girl's education
- Catholic, 225
 - girl's education (Germany), 229
 - first opened, 60, 213
 - non-coeducational, 229–230
 - NRW, 193–205
 - Prussia, 60
 - Reichstag*, 52
 - Weimar Republic, 54
 - girl's education (Norway), 60, 171
 - education for, 52, 54
 - equality of education, 213
 - first opened, 60, 213
 - framhaldsskole, 35, 99
 - in private schools, 166
 - girl's education (NRW), 229
 - coeducation in Hauptschule, 231
 - Frauenoberschule*, 230
 - Gymnasium für Frauenbildung*, 230, 231
 - Gymnasium* reform, 231
 - in Volksschulen, 231
 - limits to career paths, 230
 - path to Abitur exam, 230, 240
 - separate schooling, 240
- Gjerde, Bjartmar, 107, 110–111
- Gjøstein current, 38
- Gjøsteen, O.G., 38
- Gjøstein, Johan, 38, 60
- Gleichschaltung*, 41
- Godesberg manifesto (SPD, 1959), 117, 209
- Gotha, 52
- Göttingen Resolutions (1964), 119–120
- Goetz, Volker, 210
- grading debate, 1, 106–111
 - folkeskole*, 40
 - Norway, 148
- Grätz, Reinhard, 123–124
- Green, Andy, 8
- Grøndahl, Kirsti, 114
- Grundschule*, 117
- grunnskole
 - introduction of (1969), 104–106
- Gustavsen, Finn, 104, 157
- gymnaset*, 33, 36
- Gymnasien*, 44, 82
 - rural expansion, 190
- Gymnasium*, 45, 80, 87, 119–120, 122, 125
 - makeup, 166
 - ongoing support for, 139
- Gymnasium* (private)
 - primarily for Catholic girls, 166
- Gymnasium* (public)
 - not denominational, 166
- Haga, Borghild Bondevik, 222–223
- Hamburg Agreement, 120
- Hauglin, Otto, 151
- Hauptschule*, 80, 116–117, 120, 125, 172
 - decoupled and secularized, 121
 - homemaking for boys and girls, 232
 - non-denominational, 165
 - pedagogical reform, 135
 - recommitment to, 131, 140
 - reinvigoration mid-1970s, 132–133
 - upper Volksschule*, 165, 190
 - versus Abitur tracking, 127–128
- hegemony, 14
- Heidenheimer, Arnold, 6
- Heinz, Wolfgang, 130, 135–136, 140
- Hernes, Gudmund, 96, 115
- Herrlitz, Hans Georg, 44
- Herzberg, Ernst Günther, 185
- Hinrichs, Jürgen, 135, 208
- historical comparison
 - as methodology, 252
- Holthoff, Fritz, 86, 122, 123, 185, 232–233
- homemaking as school subject, 213–215
 - as a vocational subject, 222–223
 - commissions on the subject, 218–219
- gender parity in, 218–221, 222–223
- in party manifestos, 216
- upper-secondary housewife schools, 221
- homogeneity, role of, 6
- Hordvik, Olav
 - Christian schooling and, 154
 - on homemaking for boys, 220
- Horn, Kjell, 197
 - language struggle as class struggle, 200–201
 - youth school reform, 183–184

- Hörner, Wolfgang, 8 “housewife schools” (husmorskoler), 213
 Hovdhaugen, Einar, 100, 158, 181–182 høyere skole, 34
humanistiske Gymnasien, 50
- ideology, 14
 Independent Social Democratic Party, 53
 Ingebretsen, Smitt, 43 integrated comprehensive schooling
 (NRW), 118, 121–133, 256–257
 1970s reform movement, 123–126 ability grouping included, 122 abolition of parallel schooling, 129 anti-capitalism and, 122 as additional, not replacement, 141 introduction of (1969–75), 116, 117, 122
 opposition to, 122
 intrinsic motivation, 40
- Jews exclusions, 56, 60
 Johannessen, Guri
 on homemaking for boys, 219
 Johnsen, Håkon, 100
- Karstensen, Per, 182
Katholischer Lehrerverband, 80
 KDFB, 224
 Kerschensteiner, Georg, 52
 Kjeldseth Moe, Peter
 on homemaking for boys, 219
 Koch, Hans, 139
 Koht, Halvdan, 196
 Köppler, Heinrich, 130, 136, 138 on cooperative school reform as socialist, 205–206
 Koritzinsky, Theo, 223
 Kortner, Olav, 161–162
 KPD, 17
 KPD (NRW), 57, 79
 KPD (West Germany) party ban, 202
 Kühn, Heinz, 121, 122, 130, 138, 167–168
- labor movement, 17 housewife ideology, 214, 215
 Labor Party (Norway), 74, 89
 and teachers’ unions, 74 antagonism toward Christian Democrats, 113–114
- antagonism toward Conservative Party, 114 coalitions with rural periphery, 150 educational expansion, 41
 founding of, 31
 leadership in government, 89
 leanings and makeup, 88 manifesto for 1966–9, 102
 manifesto of 1969, 151
 nine-year obligatory schooling, 94–96
 on abolition of grading, 107–108, 109 on Christianity in the curriculum, 153
 on secular schooling, 151
 opposition to class cleavages, 94–96 protagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 radicalization, 38 stance on grades, 1 stance on secondary schooling, 38 strength post-Second World War, 64, 68 successful navigation of cleavages, 23 support for pedagogical differentiation, 101 support for sammorsk, 194
 tracking and grouping, 43
 youth school reform, 184
- ladder-system of education, 57, 60, 124, 129 to replace parallel schooling (West Germany), 118
Landeselternschaft der Gymnasien in Nordrhein-Westfalen, 136
Landesschulpflegschaft Nordrhein-Westfalen, 136
landsmål, 31
landsskuleloven, 36
 Langeland, Kjell, 159
 Langslet, Lars Roar, 74, 106, 108–109, 111–112
 on decentralization, 183 on riksmål movement, 198, 199–200 language of teaching, 33 language reform, 40 language struggle, Norwegian, 76, 193–201 “moderate” bokmål, 195–196
 1959 language standard for schoolbooks, 195 and schooling, 193–194
 center-periphery cleavage, 201
 crosscutting cleavages, 236
 history of, 193

- language struggle, Norwegian (cont.)
 identity and emotional investment, 197–198, 208
 language movement organizations, 195 maintaining two standard languages, 194 nynorsk, 31, 201
nynorsk as more pure, 193–194 opposition to samnorsk, 195 parental voting rights in schools, 196 parties and school language voting, 196 party coalitions, 201
 party stances on, 193–195
riksmål, 194, 201
samnorsk, 193 support for bokmål, 195
 Vogt Committee, 196
 written language reform, 1937, 40 written language struggle, 31
- Latin education, 50
latinskoler, 30, 33
- Laurien, Hanna-Renate, 121
- Law on the Regulation of Schools, 169
- length of schooling, 33, 36
- Lenz, Wilhelm, 86, 118, 132–133, 148, 174–175, 209
- liberal parties (West Germany) acceptance of Christian common
 schooling, 165
- liberal parties and comprehensive education, 6
- Liberal Party (Norway), 15, 31, 38, 60, 66, 88, 89, 97–98
 consent to comprehensive school reform, 143 founding of, 31
 leanings and makeup, 88
 on abolition of ability grouping, 114–115
 on secular schooling, 152
 strength post–Second World War, 66 support for samnorsk, 193
- Lie, Kari, 74, 109, 197
- Lønning, Per, 96–97, 101, 103, 158, 201 Christian schooling and, 154
lov om allmueskolen på landet, 32 lov om den høyere skole, 33
lov om folkeskolen i kjøpstædene, 36
lov om forsøk i skolen, 93 lov om høiere almenskoler, 36
lov om offentlige skoler for den høiere Almendannelse, 33
- Løvset, Mons Arntsen
 on homemaking for boys, 220
- male teachers, 69
- Manow, Phillip, 248
- Marshall, T. H., 12
- Meisdalshagen, Olav
 on homemaking for boys, 219
- middle school, 33
- Mikat, Paul, 118
 girl's education, 230–231
 on rural school centralization, 187
- Mittelschulen*, 52
- modern secondary education (Norway), 60
- modern secondary education (Prussia), 50, 60
- modernization (Prussia), 44
- Moen, Lars, 42
- Monrad, Marcus Jacob, 31
- Müller, Detlef K., 8
- Nagel, Karl, 127–128, 135
- Nasjonal Samling*, 41
- National Socialist Teachers' Union, 55
- Nazi anti-Bolshevist ideology, 203
- Nazi era and education (Germany), 55–61
- Nazi occupation of Norway, 41, 60
- Nordrhein-Westfalen-Programm 1975*, 125–126
- Norges lærerforening*, 69
- Norges Lærerinneforening*, 69
- Norges lærerlag*, 69
- normalplankomiteen, 36
- Normalplanutvalget, 106
- Norsk Lektorlag, 69, 261
- Norway
 center-periphery cleavage, 31, 60
 comprehensive education, 1, 2 development of comprehensive education, 3
 liberal alignment with working class, 60 political situation, post–Second World War, 65
 population over time, 30–36 post-Napoleonic wars, 30–36
 rural-urban cleavage, 60 school-political field, post–Second World War, 64–72
 unified left, 92
- Norway, education in attempts to abolish grading, 1

- tracking and grouping, viii–x
- Norwegian
- bokmål*, 31, 193, 194
 - landsmål*, 31
 - nynorsk*, 31–32, 40, 193–194, 198–199
 - riksmål*, 31, 199
 - sammorsk*, 40
- Norwegian composition government, 1951–83, 67–72
- Norwegian Federation of Trade Unions (Landsorganisasjonen), 31
- founding of, 31
- Norwegian ministers of education, 1951–83, 67–72
- Norwegian parliament
- party makeup 1945–81, 65–66
- Norwegian political parties
- and teacher associations, 74
 - center parties, 88, 98, 100, 101, 102–103
 - Center Party, 17, 66, 88, 89
 - Christian Democrats, 15, 66, 88, 89
 - Communist Party, 67
 - Conservative Party, 15, 31, 38, 66, 88, 89
 - Conservative Party and teachers' associations, 74
 - Farmers' Party, 38, 41
 - income of party head offices over time, 72
 - leanings and makeup, 88–91
 - membership over time, 68–72
 - parliament, 1945–81, 65–66
 - Red Party, 67
 - Rødt, 67
 - Socialist Left Party, 66, 89
 - Socialist People's Party, 17
 - women in, 214
- Norwegian schooling reform
- nine-year obligatory schooling, 92, 93
 - tracking and grouping (Norway), 92
- Norwegian teachers' unions
- Association of Norwegian Secondary Schoolteachers, 69, 75, 89
 - budgets over time, 73–80
 - Female Teachers' Association, 89
 - membership fees over time, 73–80
 - membership numbers over time, 73–80
 - Norwegian Teachers' Association, 69, 75, 89
 - Norwegian Teachers' Organization, 69
- Norwegian Teachers' Association, 89, 109
- Conservative Party and, 74
 - Labor Party and, 74
 - on abolition of grading, 109
 - protagonism to comprehensive school reform, 143
- Norwegian Women's National Council, 214
- Norwegian written languages
- written language struggle, 40
- November Revolution of 1918, 53
- NRW, 6
- disagreements over denominational schooling, 57
 - founding of, 57
 - ministers of education over time, 79–80
 - parties in government, over time, 79–80
 - population, 1816–2013, 44–50
- NRW Constitution of 1950,
- denominational schooling in, 167, 169
 - private schooling, 168, 169
- NRW political parties, 76
- party percentages in West German elections, 1949–83, 79
 - seats in parliament 1947–85, 77–79
- NRW Working Group for Comprehensive Schooling, 87
- NSDAP
- 1933 concordat with Vatican, 56
 - absorption of teacher organizations, 56
 - creation of elite schools, 56
 - curricular reform, 56
 - denominational schooling, 56
 - educational tracking, 56
 - exclusion of Jews universities, 56
 - Reichsschulpflichtgesetz*, 56
 - restrictions on women in university, 56
 - varieties of schools, 56
- Oberrealschulen, 50
- obligatory schooling, nine-year, 120, 142, 155, 158, 172, 183–184
- and centralization, 189
 - CDU support for (West Germany), 131
 - Norway, 92, 93, 94–95
 - NRW, 116
 - objections by teachers' unions, 104
- obligatory schooling, ten-year
- CDU (West Germany) support for, 126
 - CDU withdrawal of support for, 131
 - Hamburg Agreement, 120
 - Lyzeum*, 52
 - Norway, 38
 - SPD (West Germany) support for, 117

- obligatory schooling, ten-year (cont.)
 West German support for, 115
- occupational bans administrative practices, 210–211 impact on political parties, 210–211
- Ommedal, Hans, 100, 158
- opposition to tracked comprehensive schooling
 Association of Norwegian Secondary Schoolteachers, 98
- Organization Comprehensive School, 87
 protagonism to comprehensive school reform, 143
- organizational v. pedagogical differentiation (Norway), 101–106, 111–116
- orientation years, 117, 124, 130 debate on, 136–137
- Österman, Marcus, 7
- Ostpolitik*, 202, 205
- Ot. prp. nr. 30* (1958), Lov om folkeskolen, 94
- parallel schooling
 German commitment to, 57, 61 urban Norway, 33–34
- parental rights, 238
 and tracking and grouping, 127, 139
- parents' associations, 87
- parliamentary interventions postwar, 41–44
- parliamentary school commission (Norway 1920s), 36
- Pedagogical Colleges separation from denomination, 175
- Picht, Georg, 118
- political parties
 funding and resources, 89 opposition to ability grouping, 102 support for pedagogical differentiation, 101
- political parties (Germany) and education politics, 244
 manifestos, 240
- political parties (Norway)
 and education politics, 243
- population density (Norway 1845–1970), 38–51
- postwar education politics (Norway) importance of political center, 88 rural centrism, 88
- post–Second World War reform
 Germany, 59, 61
 Norway, 59, 61
 secularization of schooling, 59
- power resources theory, 11, 12–16
 and education politics, 243
- antagonists, 12
 class, defined, 12
 consenters, 12
 described, 12 education reform, 19
 institutions, 12
 protagonists, 12
 relational aspects, 12–13
- Primary School Committee
 (Grunnskolerådet), 76
- primary school law of April 1920, 54
- primary schoolteachers' organizations, 40
 Deutscher Lehrerverein (DLV), 80
 gender cleavage, 90
 state-church cleavage, 90
- primary schools (Germany) failed comprehensive education initiatives, 57 teacher opposition to comprehensive reforms, 149
- primary schools (Norway)
 seven-year comprehensive, 60 teacher support for comprehensive reforms, 149
- primary schools (NRW) denominational, 165
- primary schools (Prussia), 80 expansion, 60
 state-building, 44
- primary schools (Weimar Republic) four-year comprehensive, 60
- private schooling (Norway), 160–162 democratic morality of, 160 financing of, 160
- private schooling (NRW), 166–175
 CDU and, 169
 Center Party and, 169
 funding of, 170–171
 impact on denominational public schooling, 171 regulation, 169
- private schools, decrease in, 40
- Progress Party, 67
- Protestant population (Germany 1871–1987), 47–63

- Protestant Volksschulen (NRW) 1953–69, 165–180
- Prussia
- anti-Catholicism, 46, 48
 - class cleavage, 60
 - liberal alignment with elites, 60
 - sectarian divide, 46
 - state-church cleavage, 60
- Prussian education reforms, early nineteenth century, 44
- public vs. private school
- funding of, 166
- Pürsten, Albert, 185
- Quisling, Vidkun, 41
- Randal, Håkon, 113
- Ratzki, Anne, 122, 132, 135, 205
- on coeducation, 233
- Rau, Johannes, 138, 171
- Realgymnasien*, 50
- Realgymnasium*, 50
- Realschule 1. Ordnung*, 50
- Realschulen*, 50
- homemaking for boys and girls, 232
 - makeup, 166
 - private, 166
 - public, 166
 - rural expansion, 190
- Realschullehrerverband*, 136
- realskole, 1, 30, 33, 36, 61
- rural-urban cleavage, 98
- Red Party, 67
- “Reservations against the Cooperative School,” 136
- Reichstag*, 46
- 1898 elections, 48
- resistance to Nazi regime in Norway
- teachers and, 41
- Riemer, Horst-Ludwig, 136, 138
- riksmål*, 31
- Ringer, Fritz K., 8
- Rodenstein, Heinrich, 118
- Rødt*, 67
- Rogstad, Anna, 214
- Røiseland, Bert, 98
- Rokkanian theoretical framework
- additional cleavages, 254
 - fruitfulness for study of education politics, 247–248
 - unstudied potentials, 253–255
- Rolff, H.-G., 123, 138
- Røssum, Ola O., 109
- rural population (Germany 1875–2000), 50–63
- rural school centralization
- party stances on, 187–189
- rural schooling
- parallel schooling, 33–34, 36
- rural schooling (Norway)
- decentralization and, 176–177, 178, 179, 182
 - folkeskole* centralization and, 179–180
 - funding of, 177
 - party stances on, 176–177
 - separate laws, 177, 182
- rural schooling (NRW), 184–190
- CDU, 184
 - CDU (NRW), 187–188
 - centralization, 192–193
 - decentralization, 184, 187–188
 - school size and, 184
- rural-urban cleavage, 17, 52, 88, 249
- and Labor Party (Norway), 236
 - crosscutting cleavages, 236, 237, 238
 - dwarf schools, 236, 237
 - Norway, 60
 - Norwegian education politics, 236
 - NRW education politics, 236
 - parallel schooling, 33–34, 36
- Sammenfatning og utsyn*, 42
- sammorsk*
- curriculum development (1936–39), 40
- Samordningsnemnda for skoleverket*, 42
- Scheidemann, Philip, 53
- Schmidt, Helmut, 83
- school experimentation (Norway), 92–108
- ability grouping, 101
 - nine-year obligatory schooling, 94–95
 - parallel schooling controversy, 94–99
- school reform, Germany, 1959
- additional school years, 117
- school size, 179–183
- school supervision law of 1872 (Schulaufsichtsgesetz), 46
- schooling, Norway, postwar
- compulsory schooling, 42
 - internal coordination, 42
- schooling, Norway, pre-1950, 30–44
- Christian pietism, 30

- schooling, Norway, pre-1950 (cont.)
 comprehensive education, development of, 34
 gender divisions in classes, 30 Latin schools vs. middle schools, 30 parallel schooling (urban), 33–34
 parliamentary interventions, 33, 37–38 quality of comprehensive education, 33 religion, 30, 32
 secondary education, early 1800s, 30 schools, centralization of, 36
Schulordnungsgesetz, 169
 Schütte, Ernst, 123
 Schütz, Werner, 118, 170–171
 Schwier, Heinz, 209 secondary schoolteachers political influence, 6 secondary schooling elite, 60
 for girls, 34, 35
 secondary schooling (Prussia)
 state-building, 44
 secondary schools (Norway) teacher opposition to comprehensive reforms, 149
 segmentation ability grouping, 1
 defined, 1
 parallel schooling, 1
 tracking, 1–3
Sekundarschule, 256
 Seland, Karstein, 222
Senterpartiet, 38
 Sethne, Anna, 223
 Seweriin, Rakel, 153
 on homemaking for boys, 219–220
Simultanschulen (simultaneous schools), 46, 54
 Sivertsen, Helge, 42, 221
 Skard, Torild, 197 social citizenship, 12 social democracy, 60 social democracy and comprehensive education, 6
 social democratic reform (Norway), 23 social democrats comparative, 6–8 education and, 52–53 social democrats (Norway) success in education reform, 64
 social democrats (West Germany) acceptance of Christian common
 schooling, 165
 social exclusivity, 44
 socialist heritage and communist threat
 impact on political parties, 209
 Socialist Left Party, 66, 89
 on secular schooling, 151
 Socialist People's Party opposition to youth school, 104 protagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 support for pedagogical differentiation, 101–102
 Socialist People's Party (Norway), 17 Socialist Workers' Party founding, 52
 Sogn, Karen, 113
 SPD (NRW), 57, 76, 80, 84, 117, 141
 German Confederation of Trade Unions (DGB) and, 77
 leanings and makeup, 76–77
 manifesto of 1962, 171–172, 186
 manifesto of 1975, 131–132
 on denominational schooling, 167–168 on reform, 123–124
 on rural school centralization, 188 opposition to CDU on elitism, 134 opposition to dwarf schools, 184 opposition to Ersatzschulfinanzgesetz, 171 support for centralization, 184
 Volksschulen reform and, 188
 SPD (West Germany), 52, 53, 54, 89, 117
 Federal Arbitration Commission, 211 gender and employment, 228 Godesberg manifesto, 117, 228 internal struggles over communism, 210–211
 manifesto of 1957 and gender issues, 227 opposition to Simultanschule, 54
 protagonism to comprehensive school
 reform, 143
 socialist heritage and communist threat, 209 student socialism, 209 support for denominational schooling, 165 support for integrated comprehensive schooling, 127
 splits, 15, 26
 between groups of teachers, 11, 64, 258

- intra-party, 245, 250 within the labor movement, 18, 212, 253 within the language movement, 195 within the women's movement, 224
St. meld. nr. 9 (1954), 43 standards, implementation of, 36 state funding primary schools (Prussia), 52 secondary schools (Prussia), 52 state role in education sector, 36–41 state-building and educational reforms, 6
 state-church cleavage, 17, 88, 249, 251 and political party affiliations, 89
 crosscutting cleavages, 238
 Norway, 15, 238
 Prussia, 60
 Prussian education politics, 45–47
 Steen, Reulf, 113
 Stephens, John D., 12
 Stiehl regulations of 1854, 48
Stunde Null (zero hour), 58
 Süvern, Johann Wilhelm, 45
 Syrstad, Johan, 114

 teacher seminaries, 48 teachers' organizations (NRW) membership numbers 1960–80, 85–90 teachers' organizations (West Germany), 80–86 against integrated comprehensive
 schooling, 122
 connections to political parties, 85–87
 teachers' unions, 9
 Teusch, Christine, 58, 230
 Thrane, Marcus, 31
 Thraniter movement, 31
 Todal, Sivert, 98
 tracking and grouping and parental rights, 127
 Norway, 92
 reproduction of social inequality, 1 social inequalities and, 6 trade unions (Norway), 31, 65 trade unions (West Germany) support for integrated comprehensive
 schooling, 121
 Tunesvik, Hans Olav, 98, 200 on nynorsk movement, 198–199

ungdomsskole (youth school), 1, 43, 93
 Union of Education, 261 universal suffrage (Prussia), 48 upper-secondary schooling

 tracking and grouping, 1
 upper-secondary schools, 44
 urban population (Germany 1875–2000), 50–63

 Vågen, Tormod, 156
 van Kersbergen, Kees, 248 variation in student performance, 6
*Verband der Elternschaften Deutscher
 Realschulen*, 136
Verband Deutscher Realschullehrer, 82
Vereinsverband akademisch gebildeter Lehrer Deutschland, 82
 VkdL (Verband katholischer deutscher Lehrerinnen), 80, 224 support for separate education for girls, 225
 VKLD (Verband der Katholischen Lehrerschaft Deutschlands), 86, 89 vocational education, 171
 Vogt Committee, 199
 Volksschulen, 44, 48, 52, 80 class and school sizes, 185 reforms, 172–175, 188, 190
 teacher organizations, 80
 Volmert, Anton, 187–188

 Weimar Republic, 53–55
 and education, 54
 Christian schooling, 54 comprehensive education, 54 welfare state regimes, 9 Catholicism and, 13
 coalitions and, 13
 “well-regulated school operations,” 167, 187 removal from Constitution, 191
 West German government, 79–91
 West German political parties
 CDU, 83, 84, 89
 CSU, 83
 FDP, 83, 89
 leanings and makeup, 88–91
 ministers of education over time, 79–80
 parties in government, over time, 79–80 party head income over time, 80–91 party membership over time, 79–85 party staffing over time, 80, 82–88
 SPD, 83, 84, 89

- West German teachers' unions Association of Education and Upbringing, 89
 Association of Philologists, 89
 GEW, 89
 VKLD, 89
- Wiborg, Susanne, 6
- Wikborg, Erling, 97
- Wisløff, Carl Fredrik, 156
- Wisløff, Fredrik, 156
- Women's Front, 215
- women's movement, 17, 60
 and education politics, 249–250
- women's movement (Germany)
 and education politics, 240–241
 Catholic women's movement, 224
 German Women's Council, 224 German-Evangelical Women's Union, 224
- girls' education, 225
- Information Service for Women's Questions, 224
- women's movement (Norway), 214
 and education politics, 240
- women's movement, Norway, second wave, 215 influence on party manifestos, 1970s, 216 women's coup, 215
- Women's Union of the Labor Party, 214
- youth school (Norway), 93 curricula, 100 introduction of (1969), 104–106
 reforms, 104, 179–180, 181, 183–184
 tracking and grouping, 100–101
- Zook Commission (US), 57