

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2003 History of Economics Society Annual Meeting: The annual conference of the History of Economics Society will be held July 4–6, 2003, at Duke University. For more information, please consult the conference website, <http://www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/carchive/HES2003/>, or contact HES President-elect E. Roy Weintraub by e-mail at HES2003@duke.econ, or by post at Department of Economics, Box 90097, Duke University, Durham NC 27708, or by fax at (919) 684-8974.

Call for Papers: The History of Economics Society will sponsor four sessions at the Allied Social Sciences Association (ASSA) meetings January 3–5, 2004 (Saturday, Sunday, Monday), in San Diego, California. Please submit suggestions for organizing sessions and abstracts for papers (approx. 200 words) no later than April 14, 2003. Please note that early submissions and submissions for whole sessions will be given preferential consideration. Proposals relating to any aspect of the history of economics or subjects of related interest to the community of historians of economics should be sent to: Mary S. Morgan, Vice-President HES, Department of Economic History, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE, UK; or by e-mail to: m.morgan@lse.ac.uk (e-mail is preferred).

Call for Papers, ECHE 2003: The Eighth Annual European Conference on the History of Economics will be held at the Technical University of Lisbon, Lisbon, Portugal May 2–4, 2003. The conference will have as its theme, “Economics and Exile: Émigrés in the history of 20th century economics.” All requests for information should be sent to: José Luís Cardoso, CISEP-2003 ECHE, Rua Miguel Lupi 20, P-1200 Lisbon, Portugal (phone: (351-1) 391-25-30/395-57-45; Fax: (351-1) 396-73-09; e-mail: jcardoso@iseg.utl.pt).

Call for Papers, HETSA 2003: The 16th annual conference of the History of Economic Thought Society of Australia will be held on July 15–18, 2003, in Melbourne at the St Patrick’s Campus of the Australian Catholic University. Proposals for papers on all aspects of the history of economic thought are welcome. Submit an abstract of no more than 250 words to Gregory Moore by May 31, 2003, indicating whether the abstract is for a full paper or work-in-progress. For further information, see the conference website, <http://comlaw.uta-s.edu.au/economics/HETSA2003/about.html>, or contact Dr. Gregory C. G. Moore, Australian Catholic University Limited, ABN 15 050 192 660, St Patrick’s Campus, 115 Victoria Parade, Fitzroy VIC 3065 (Phone: 61-3-9953-3167; Fax: 61-3-9953-3775; e-mail: g.moore@patrick.acu.edu.au).

Turgot Conference: On May 7–10, 2003, the National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institute National d'Etudes Demographiques), the Turgot Society (Societe des Amis de Turgot) and the University of Caen will organize in Lantheuil Castle (Calvados, low Normandy) a Conference devoted to the action, publications and influence of the father of French liberalism, controller general A.-R.-J. Turgot, "Turgot (1727–1781), Our Contemporary: Economics, Administration and Government in the Enlightenment." This conference will not only study the fundamental contribution made by Turgot to the economic thought of the Enlightenment, but also measure what lessons can be drawn today from his reflection and from his actions. Contact: Jacqueline Hecht, INED, 133 bld Davout, 75020 Paris, France (Tel: 33 (0)1 56 06 2114 or 33 (0)1 56 06 20 24; Fax: 33 (0)1 56 06 21 93; e-mail: varlet@ined.fr).

Conference Announcement: The International Confederation of Associations for Pluralism in Economics (ICAPE) announces its first conference on "The Future of Heterodox Economics," June 5–7, 2003 at the University of Missouri at Kansas City, USA. Founded in 1993, ICAPE is a consortium of 40 organizations working cooperatively to foster pluralism in the analytical perspectives, methods, policy discourse, and education of professional economists. Now, ten years on, ICAPE is sponsoring its first conference: on the future of heterodox economics. This conference is an invitation to think anew about who and what "heterodox economics" is becoming, intellectually and institutionally. Contact Rob Garnett, Department of Economics, Box 298510, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, TX 76129 (r.garnett@tcu.edu).

Conference Announcement: The 5th Annual Conference of the Association of Heterodox Economics will be held at Nottingham Trent University, UK, July 8–9, 2003. All economists are encouraged to come together and hear diverse papers on topics not well represented in mainstream economics. For further details, see the AHE web-site, www.hetecon.com, or contact Veronica Foster, Department of Economics and Politics, Nottingham Trent University, Burton Street, Nottingham NG1 4BU, UK (e-mail: Veronica.Forster@ntu.ac.uk).