

Freeing minds for 200 years.

DIVINITY HALL

HDS Bicentennial 2016–17

IN 1816, THE SOCIETY FOR the Promotion of Theological Education in Harvard University was organized and Harvard Divinity School was born. Of his support for the project, President John Adams, the society's first subscriber, wrote, "I never did anything with more satisfaction than by contributing a mite toward removing some of the shackles from the human mind."

IN 2016–17, HDS WILL MARK 200 years of critical thinking and scholarship on religion. Please join us for this yearlong celebration. All are welcome. Bring your mind. Leave the shackles.

Scottish Journal of Theology

Published on behalf of Scottish Journal of Theology Ltd

Editor

Ian McFarland, University of Cambridge, UK

Scottish Journal of Theology is an international journal of systematic, historical and biblical theology. Since its foundation in 1948, it has become established as one of the world's leading theological journals. As well as publishing original research articles, most issues contain an article-length review of a recent book, with a reply from the author. Scottish Journal of Theology provides an ecumenical forum for debate, and engages in extensive reviewing of theological and biblical literature.
