“Cultural and historical insights, interviews and a wide range of suggested resources through which you can inspire your students to learn about the world.”

– IAN TIEDEMANN
Greenwich High School, CT

Education About Asia (EAA), published by the Association for Asian Studies, is a unique and fascinating resource for teachers, students, and all those with an interest in Asia. Articles and reviews in EAA cover a wide range of topics and time periods— from ancient to modern history, language, geography, religion, youth culture, and much more.

EAA was first published in 1996 and appears three times a year. It will greatly enhance your understanding and knowledge of this important region of the world.

With each issue, you will enjoy:

- Stimulating articles on all areas of Asia, with subjects ranging from ancient cultures and literatures to current events.
- Educational teaching resources for classroom use.
- A comprehensive guide to Asia-related print and digital resources—movies and documentaries, books, curriculum guides, and a wide variety of web resources.
- Each issue includes a special section on a topic of particular interest to secondary school, undergraduate, and middle school instructors, as well as essays and teaching resource-related articles that focus upon other important Asia-related subjects.

NEW BOOK RELEASES ABOUT THE PANDEMIC

from the AAS Asia Shorts Book Series

THE PANDEMIC: PERSPECTIVES ON ASIA provides analyses of the COVID-19 pandemic in Asia. It covers the first phase of the pandemic that will help future scholars to contextualize the history of the present. It includes interpretations by leading scholars in anthropology, food studies, history, media studies, political science, and visual studies, who examine the political, social, economic, and cultural impact of COVID-19 in China, India, Korea, Japan, Taiwan, and beyond. The timely and provocative essays in the volume will be of interest to scholars, teachers, students, and general readers.

ISBN: 9781952636172 (paperback). 198 Pages.
AAS MEMBERS: $12.80*
NON-MEMBERS: $16.00

TEACHING ABOUT ASIA IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC presents many lessons learned by educators during the COVID-19 outbreak. The volume consists of two sections. Section One includes chapters discussing how to teach Asian history, politics, culture, and society using examples and case studies emerging from the pandemic. Section Two focuses on the pedagogical tools and methods that teachers can employ to teach Asian topics beyond the traditional face-to-face classroom. Both sections are designed for undergraduate instructors as well as high school teachers using prose that is easily accessible for non-specialists.

ISBN: 9781952636196 (paperback). 234 Pages.

THE JOURNAL OF ASIAN STUDIES

The Journal of Asian Studies (JAS) has played a defining role in the field of Asian studies for 80 years. JAS publishes the very best empirical and multidisciplinary work on Asia, spanning the arts, history, literature, the social sciences, and cultural studies. Experts around the world turn to this quarterly journal for the latest in-depth scholarship on Asia's past and present, for its extensive book reviews, and for its state-of-the-field essays on established and emerging topics. With coverage reaching from South and Southeast Asia to China, Inner Asia, and Northeast Asia, JAS welcomes broad comparative and transnational studies as well as essays emanating from fine-grained historical, cultural, political, and literary research. The journal also publishes clusters of papers that present new and vibrant discussions on specific themes and issues.
