BLACK BUSINESS IN THE NEW SOUTH

A Social History of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company

With a new introduction
by the author
Walter B. Weare

“The best book written on ‘black business’ in this century. . . . The race relations of Durham, North Carolina, past and present, come to life as the author uses the new home office building of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company as a pivotal point for a stimulating assessment of the company’s current success.”—Gossie Harold Hudson, Journal of Southern History

“A model social history that reflects well on the institution and the author.”—John Hope Franklin

THE PERILS AND PROSPECTS OF SOUTHERN BLACK LEADERSHIP

Gordon Blaine Hancock, 1884-1970
With a new preface by the author
Raymond Gavins

“In this insightful and well-balanced biography, Gavins has enlarged our understanding of what talented, proud, and race-conscious blacks encountered when they assumed leadership positions within a caste society.”—Morton Sosna, American Historical Review

“Gavins is the quintessential intellectual historian.”—John Blassingame, Yale University

The Association of AMERICAN UNIVERSITY PRESSES
Directory 1992-1993

As an introduction and guide to the world of university presses, the directory will be an essential reference and resource to anyone who is, or wants to be, involved in scholarly publishing.

The Association of American University Presses has for over fifty years worked to encourage the dissemination of scholarly research and ideas. Today the 109 members of the AAUP annually publish over 8,000 books and more than 500 periodicals. The directory offers a detailed introduction to the structure and publishing programs of AAUP member presses.

Among its useful features are:

- Information on 109 university presses in the U.S., Canada, and overseas
- Complete addresses, phone and fax numbers
- Names and responsibilities of key staff
- Subject area guide, with 136 categories, indicating which presses publish in a given area
- Advice for authors on the submission of manuscripts

Freedom and Tenure in the Academy

William W. Van Alstyne, editor

Questions of academic freedom—from expression to the tenure system—continue to be of great urgency and perennial debate in American higher education. Grounded in a thorough examination of the 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure, this volume draws together leading scholars of law, philosophy, and higher education to offer a fresh assessment of the founding principles of academic freedom and to define this crucial topic for the 1990s.

Contributors. Ralph S. Brown, Matthew W. Finkin, Jordan E. Kurland, Michael W. McConnell, Walter P. Metzger, Robert M. O'Neil, David M. Rabban, Rodney A. Smolla, Janet Sinder, Judith Jarvis Thomson, William W. Van Alstyne
