

Journal of Global History

Published for London School of Economics and Political Science

Chief Editor

William Gervase Clarence-Smith, SOAS, London, UK

Editors

Barbara Watson Andaya, University of Hawaii, USA

Merry Wiesner-Hanks, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, USA

Journal of Global History addresses the main problems of global change over time, together with the diverse histories of globalization. It also examines counter-currents to globalization, including those that have structured other spatial units. The journal seeks to transcend the dichotomy between 'the West and the rest', straddle traditional regional boundaries, relate material to cultural and political history, and overcome thematic fragmentation in historiography. The journal also acts as a forum for interdisciplinary conversations across a wide variety of social and natural sciences.

Curing 'the bends'

“Hill and Greenwood decompressed themselves, without any serious symptoms, after short exposures at excess pressures of as much as five and even six atmospheres.”

From 'The Prevention of Compressed Air Illness',
Journal of Hygiene, 1908

This breakthrough article included early research into decompression and the first ever dive tables.

Instructions for contributors

MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and its related fields, from the period of 1650 to the present. Though its primary focus is on Europe and the United States, it also devotes attention to global intellectual and cultural exchanges. In so doing, MIH concerns itself primarily with apprehending the contextual origins and receptions of texts in order to recover their historical meanings.
