

dolph Gordon, Chairperson, Norfolk State University. Many representatives from political science departments from Norfolk area colleges and universities also attended the ceremony. Among the honors presented Dr. Robinson were a plaque from the Committee on the Status of Blacks in the Profession and a citation from APSA President Warren E. Miller which read as follows:

"The American Political Science Association Committee on the Status of Blacks in the Profession takes pride in paying tribute to the Honorable William P. Robinson, Sr. As a scholar, teacher, leader in the profession of political science and member of the Virginia House of Delegates, Dr. Robinson has effectively, skillfully and thoughtfully contributed to the development of knowledge, to institutions and organizations of higher learning, and the well-being of the State of Virginia, while also inspiring the affection and admiration of students and colleagues.

"The American Political Science Association joins with the Committee on the Status of Blacks in the Profession in recognizing the accomplishments of William P. Robinson, Sr."

Regional and State Political Science Associations

At the 1979 Annual Meeting of the Association, officers of the state and regional associations again met. The meeting provided officers an opportunity to discuss mutual concerns in conducting state and regional associations as well as ways in which the organizations can be strengthened.

PS is publishing its annual list of state and regional political science associations including organizations, officers, publications, and meetings in this issue. Further information as well as additions or corrections to the list will be appreciated.

Detailed information on activities and meetings of state and regional associations for the past and forthcoming conference section of PS will also be most welcome.
