International Phonetic Association

For general information on the International Phonetic Association please visit <https://www.internationalphoneticassociation.org>. The IPA maintains a site with information on the International Phonetic Alphabet, on available phonetic fonts and sound recordings, and on subscription to the Association. It also has links to other sources of information on phonetics.

Audio files of the recorded material accompanying the language Illustrations in the Handbook of the International Phonetic Association, published by Cambridge University Press in 1999, may be downloaded from the following web site:

<https://www.internationalphoneticassociation.org/content/handbook-ipa>

Audio files of the recorded material accompanying language Illustrations published in the Journal of the International Phonetic Association since 1998 (after the publication of the Handbook of the International Phonetic Association) may be downloaded from the following privileged-access website available to registered members of the IPA:
