The African Studies Review is edited by Eastern African Studies, Syracuse University. All editorial correspondence and manuscripts (with the exception of review essays) should be sent to: The Editor, African Studies Review, Eastern African Studies, Syracuse University, 119 College Place, Syracuse, New York 13210, U.S.A. Correspondence concerning review essays should be sent to: Hans E. Panofsky, M. J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois 60201, U.S.A.

All manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate. Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced (notes, excerpts, and references should also be double-spaced) and should be clear and dark. Please do not use erasable or onionskin paper. Maps, tables, charts, graphs, and other illustrations must be camera-ready. Manuscripts should conform to the recommendations of the latest edition of A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press); a Review style sheet may be secured from the editors. Footnotes and references should appear at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts will be submitted without the name of the author to outside readers; please include a removable cover page giving title, authorship, affiliation, and address—the article itself should carry only the title. The Review will only consider manuscripts that have not been published elsewhere and are not being considered by other journals.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS: The United States Post Office does not forward periodicals. We must receive written notification from you at least five weeks in advance of any change of mailing address. Failure to notify us of your correct mailing address will result in suspension of your membership until we receive such notification. We can make address changes only when current dues are paid. Domestic claims for non-receipt of issues must be made to the association's office within six months of the month of publication (overseas claims, one year). Copies of the Review damaged in the mail will be replaced without charge.

The African Studies Review is published three times a year (April, September, and December) by the African Studies Association, Epstein Building, Brandeis University, Waltham, Mass. 02154, U.S.A. Articles in the Review represent neither the views of the African Studies Association nor those of its officers; responsibility for opinions expressed and for the accuracy of facts published rests solely with the individual authors. The publishers of the African Studies Review assume that contributors to the journal are literate in the English language, coherent in thought, and conversant with the principles of scholarship. The publisher has not copyedited this material; responsibility for copyediting is entirely the author's.
