Announcing a Joint Conference.....

5th RADIOTHERAPY IN PRACTICE & 2nd ADVANCED
PRACTICE (RADIOTHERAPY & ONCOLOGY)
CONFERENCES

Friday 8th, Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th October 2010.

Is it for you? - this conference is aimed at all health care professionals practising in Radiotherapy and Oncology as well as students undertaking postgraduate, pre-registration and professional development studies.

What is it about? - the conference will explore key issues relating to advanced practice, technological advancements and innovation in radiotherapy, service user involvement and workforce imperatives, CPD as well as the education, professional development and research activities of practitioners.

The overarching conference theme is: 'Making It Happen.'

The RIP5 conference themes are:

- Innovation in Practice
- Workforce Development
- Technical Advances
- Education & Training
- Research & Audit
- Service User Involvement
- Site specific focus - Breast & Prostate (this does not exclude submissions on other sites/diseases within the other themes above)

The AP2 conference themes are:

- Definition of and philosophical approaches to advanced practice;
- Sharing experience (internationally) of advanced practice roles and working;
- Education and training for advanced practice;
- Barriers and enablers for advanced practice;
- Managing and developing a service incorporating advanced practitioners

The weekend's workshops, exhibition and social events will also enable you to establish and maintain contact with fellow professionals in an informal manner.

What should you do? - reserve the weekend of October 8th, 9th and 10th 2010 in your diary NOW.

Would you like to present a paper or poster, have a presence at the exhibition?

Would you like to register as a delegate? You can do so via the conference website, where further information is also available: <http://www.shu.ac.uk/radiotherapy/ripconference>

If you require further information, please contact David Eddy (Chair - Conference Organising Committee) by e-mail (d.eddy@shu.ac.uk) or telephone + 44 (0) 114 225 2379.
