

DISCUSSION PAPERS

As announced at the recent Colloquium, the Editors have now decided that authors submitting papers to any section of the Bulletin may be approached or may volunteer, that their paper should form the subject of a discussion paper or papers, to be printed either simultaneously with or subsequent to the original paper. Topics raised at a colloquium may also provide suitable material for discussion papers. Authors of originating papers would be shown resulting discussion papers prior to publication.

The Editors