The Materialist Conception of History

Karl Kautsky

Abridged, annotated and introduced by John H. Kautsky; translated by Raymond Meyer with John H. Kautsky

Karl Kautsky, an early disciple of Marx, was regarded as the leading orthodox interpreter of Marxism from the 1880s to 1914. This is the first English translation of his magnum opus, available in an abridged version that makes it much more accessible and useful to modern readers. 624pp. £35.00

The Druze

Robert Brenton Betts

The Druze have been key participants in the shifting power struggles of the Middle East, despite the fact that they are non-Muslim Arabs in an overwhelmingly Muslim Arab world. This book tells their complete story for the first time, providing a general survey of the history, traditions and society of the Druze community. 192pp. 27 illus. £14.95

Marxism and Democracy in Chile

1932 to the Fall of Allende

Julio Faundez

This book traces the development of Chilean politics from 1932 to the overthrow of Allende in 1973, focusing in particular on the participation of Marxist parties in Chile's democratic government. It adds an important new perspective to a perennial topic of debate among politicians and political scientists worldwide. 288pp. £18.50

Decolonization and African Independence

The Transfers of Power, 1960-1980

*edited by Prosser Gifford and
Wm. Roger Louis*

What has independence in Africa actually meant, and what has it accomplished? In this book some of the most distinguished authorities on Africa assess the conditions in each country at the time of the transfer of political authority and analyse the consequences of the ways in which independence was achieved. 736pp. £30.00

The Transfer of Power in Africa

Decolonization, 1940-1960

Wm. Roger Louis*

"[An] impressive symposium . . . displaying the fruits of a generation's research."

— Times Literary Supplement
704pp. Now in paper, £12.95

Ideology and U.S. Foreign Policy

Michael H. Hunt

"Mr. Hunt's examination of the conflation of liberty and greatness helps us understand the ideological genesis of the Reagan doctrine, with its open-ended support for anti-communist movements everywhere."

— New York Times Book Review
251pp. Illus. Now in paper, £6.95

Common Decency Domestic Policies after Reagan

Alvin L. Schorr

with a chapter by James P. Comer

"A wide-ranging, well-informed review."

— Political Science Quarterly
256pp. Now in paper, £7.95

Leadership at the Fed

Donald F. Kettl

A political history of one of Washington's most powerful agencies and of the men who guided its growth into the national and international force it is today.

231pp. Now in paper, £8.95

Notes for Contributors

1 All contributions should be sent to: The Editors, British Journal of Political Science, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester, Essex CO4 3SQ. They should not be sent to the Cambridge University Press.

2 Articles submitted to the Journal should in general be between 5,000 and 12,000 words (or equivalent in tables and figures) in length. An abstract not exceeding 120 words is required.

3 Notes and Comments are welcome. A Note should contain a body of original information, a new method for doing something or a new idea (speculation, argument, proof, etc.) presented in a brief and unadorned form without inessential commentary. Comments containing criticisms of articles published in the Journal and additional thoughts on them will be considered for early publication, especially if they are short – say, under 1,000 words.

4 Most issues of the Journal contain a Review Article – either a detailed discussion of a single book or a review of the state of some area of the discipline. Review Articles submitted without prior consultation will be considered for publication, but in their own interest contributors would be well advised not to prepare a Review Article specially for the Journal without first getting in touch with the Editors.

5 Contributors should note the Journal's editorial policy, which is as stated inside the front cover.

6 Authors of articles and Review Articles receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if they are ordered at proof stage.

7 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. In the interest of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press.

8 Authors should submit FOUR COPIES of their articles. Contributions must be typed and may be reproduced in any clearly legible form. The preferred size of paper is A4 ($8\frac{1}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in), but quarto (8×10 in) or the US standard size ($8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in) will also be accepted. Because of postage costs, manuscripts not accepted for publication are not normally returned to the author unless their return is specifically requested.

9 The entire material of any article, including footnotes, quotations, appendices, etc., should be double spaced, with left-hand margins of at least $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. The preferred treatment of footnotes is that they should be numbered consecutively in the text and typed double spaced all together at the end, beginning on a fresh page.

10 Anyone who is preparing a manuscript for submission to the Journal is urged to follow the Journal's style sheet, which covers a number of detailed points concerning footnotes, punctuation, spelling, etc. Copies of the style sheet can be obtained from the Editor. Footnote references should always contain, in the case of books, the name of the author as it appears on the title page, the full title including any subtitle, the place of publication, the name of the publisher and the date of publication, and, in the case of articles, the name of the author, the full title, the name of the journal, the volume number, the year and the page reference (number of first and last page).

11 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by air mail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent directly to the Editor by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.
