NEW IN THE SERIES

The Cahokia Mounds

WARREN KING MOOREHEAD
EDITED & WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY JOHN E. KELLY
"Moorehead's 1920s excavations in and around Cahokia is resurrected in this republication. Kelly's masterful introduction provides the reader with an invaluable framework for comprehending the character, extent, and significance of Moorehead's underappreciated contributions to Cahokia archaeology."—James Stoltman
University of Wisconsin

Late Woodland Societies

Tradition and Transformation across the Midcontinent

EDITED BY THOMAS E. EMERSON, DALE L. MCELRATH, AND ANDREW C. FORTIER

Late Woodland Societies is notable for its comprehensive geographic coverage; exhaustive presentation and discussion of sites, artifacts, and prehistoric cultural practices; and critical summaries of interpretive perspectives and trends in scholarship. The vast amount of information and theory brought together, examined, and synthesized by the contributors produces a detailed, coherent, and systematic picture of Late Woodland lifestyles across the Midwest. The Late Woodland can now be seen as a dynamic time in its own right and instrumental to the emergence of complex late prehistoric cultures across the Midwest and Southeast.

NOTICE TO AUTHORS

American Antiquity publishes original papers on the archaeology of the New World and on archaeological method, theory, and practice worldwide. Authors of papers on Latin American topics are encouraged to submit their work to Latin American Antiquity. Papers on Latin American archaeology addressing broad methodological, theoretical, or comparative issues may be accepted by either journal after consultation with the editors. Authors submit manuscripts to the editor for consideration as ARTICLES, REPORTS, COMMENTS, or FORUM essays. REVIEWS and BOOK NOTES are solicited by the respective associate editor. OBITUARIES should be submitted to the editor, SAA Bulletin, for publication (see SAA Bulletin March/April 1996, p. 7, for further details).

Authors should submit an original and four copies of their manuscripts, including all figures, tables, references, and notes. Detailed information on policy, style, and technical matters of manuscript preparation is given in the "Editorial Policy, Information for Authors, and Style Guide for American Antiquity and Latin American Antiquity," which appeared in the October 1992 issue (57:749–770) and can be read on the World Wide Web at <http://www.saa.org/Publications/StyleGuide/styframe.html>.

The editor reserves the right to evaluate manuscripts (with or without peer review) for appropriate subject matter, quality, length, and compliance with the style guide. Manuscripts may be returned to authors if they fail to meet expectations or conform to these guidelines. Manuscripts are evaluated by the editor in consultation with peer referees, as appropriate. The editor has the final responsibility for all decisions regarding manuscripts. The review process generally takes a minimum of two to four months. Authors will be notified as soon as a decision is reached to accept (outright or with revisions) or reject a manuscript.

To ensure the prompt receipt and handling of manuscripts, please send them to the editor-designate: Timothy A. Kohler, Department of Anthropology, Washington State University, Pullman, WA 99164-4910. Inquiries regarding the style guide and the production of the journal should be directed to: John Neikirk, Society for American Archaeology, 900 Second Street, N.E., Suite 12, Washington, DC 20002-3557.
