

Volume 26 Issue 3

GERMAN LAW JOURNAL

Open Access to Comparative, European, and International Law

GLJ

Image from The Allegory of Good and Bad Government by Ambrogio Lorenzetti, 1338-1339. Public domain, available at Wikimedia Commons.

German Law Journal

The German Law Journal is a pioneering open-access forum for the publication of scholarship and commentary on comparative, European, and international law. It has been online and freely available since 1999. Founded as a transatlantic newsletter on developments in German law, the Journal has secured a place among the world's leading law reviews disseminating scholarship across borders. The Journal combines high-quality theoretical research with reports on current developments and thematic special issues. Pursuing this agenda, the Journal has gained a reputation for innovative publishing - linking cutting-edge, border-crossing scholarship with open access and speed to publication.

Since 2019, the German Law Journal has been published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the German Law Journal e.V, a non-profit association under German law registered at Amtsgericht Wiesbaden, VR 7520.

Through this unique collaboration, all authors accepted for publication in the Journal can publish on an open-access basis, regardless of their funding status or affiliation. There are no financial barriers to open-access publication in the GLJ.

For more information about the Journal, including past issues and the current Editorial Board, visit: <https://www.cambridge.org/glj> and <https://germanlawjournal.com/>

Table of Contents

Vol. 26 No. 03

Pages 361–545

April 2025

Articles

Ngoc Son Bui

Constituent Power in Socialist Regimes 361–387

Carlos Arturo Villagrán Sandoval

The Unforeseen Guardians of Constitutional Democracy: Lessons from the Guatemalan 2023 Electoral Process 388–415

Luke Dimitrios Spieker

Was Grimm wrong? Putting the Over-constitutionalization of EU Law to the Test 416–448

Giovanni De Gregorio and Oreste Pollicino

The European Constitutional Way to Address Disinformation in the Age of Artificial Intelligence 449–470

Kilian Lüders

Balancing as a Means of Judicial Activism? Analysis of the German Federal Constitutional Court's Use of Balancing Language 471–492

Jan Broulík

Harm to Workers in EU Competition Law: A Sufficient Condition for Intervention 493–519

Jan Zgliniski

Reforming Football: What the EU Can Do 520–545