The French Enlightenment

J. H. Brumfitt

Philosophers in Perspective

General Editor:

A. D. Woozley

This book combines a study of the origins and development of the thought of the eighteenth-century French philosophes with an explanation of their social background. It is a concise and lucid introduction to a complex subject.

Plato and Modern Morality

Pamela Huby

New Studies in Practical Philosophy

General Editor:

W. D. Hudson

Pamela Huby here analyses Plato's views on moral and social problems, and relates them to modern ethical questions. The book, written in a lucid style, makes an interesting contribution to the current debate on education, penology, human relations, population control, censorship and sexual morality.

Penguin University Books

In the world of academic study certain books assume a special significance because of the contribution they make to scholarship and the stature of the men who wrote them.

Piaget, Goffman, Marcuse, Lévi-Strauss, Lefebvre – men whose ideas have a profound influence on current academic thinking.

Now this major new series from Penguin presents their most important work for the first time in paperback.

With four titles published in September, four more in November and twenty-four planned for 1973, this series will soon build into a storehouse of learning.

essays in PHILOSOPHY

This series of monographs sets out to provide the undergraduate with a basic introduction to the key concepts, problems and approaches in philosophy today. In each book a leading authority in his field examines and discusses one topic. The first five titles are:

What is Knowledge?

DAVID PEARS
Christ Church, Oxford

An introduction to the theory of knowledge.

Philosophy of Logic

HILARY PUTNAM

A clear approach to ontological problems in the philosophy of logic.

Problems of Mind

NORMAN MALCOLM
Cornell University

The positions of the three most plausible theories (mind-body dualism, mind-brain monism, behaviourism) are clarified and lead the reader from Descartes to the writings of Wittgenstein.

Observation and Explanation

NORWOOD RUSSELL HANSON

A guide to the philosophy of science.

Linguistic Philosophy

JERROLD J. KATZ
Professor of Philosophy, M.I.T.

The underlying reality of language and its philosophical import.
