

The Quill and the Scalpel
Nabokov's Art
and the Worlds of Science

Stephen H. Blackwell

“Scrupulously oriented to prior scholarship, Stephen H. Blackwell’s brilliant study breaks new ground in Nabokov criticism. The Quill and the Scalpel strikes me as truly a first-rate contribution to our understanding of this author.” —David Cowart, Louise Fry Scudder Professor of English, University of South Carolina

THE CHRONICLE OF THE CZECHS

Cosmas of Prague

translated with an introduction by Lisa Wolverton

The first annotated English translation of Cosmas's medieval masterwork

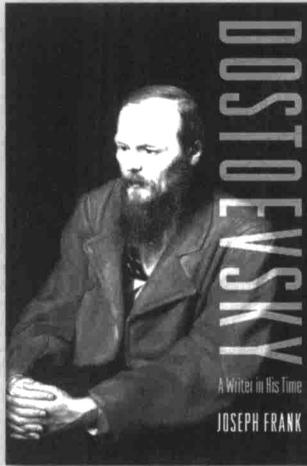

Regarded as the foundational narrative of Czech history, this book is the source of the oldest stories about the land, people, and rulers of Bohemia and Moravia. Lisa Wolverton presents an impressive translation of this lively and insightful text on medieval life and political power.

Dostoevsky

A Writer in His Time

Joseph Frank

With a new preface by the author

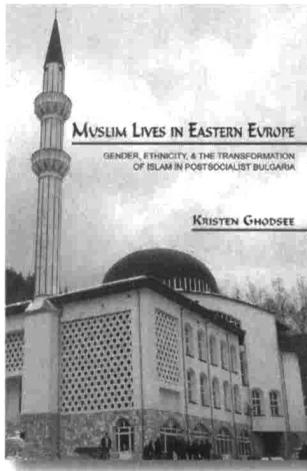

Joseph Frank's award-winning, five-volume Dostoevsky is widely recognized as the best biography of the writer in any language—and one of the greatest literary biographies of the past half-century. Now Frank's monumental, 2500-page work has been skillfully abridged and condensed in this single, highly readable volume with a new preface by the author.

Praise for the volumes of Joseph Frank's Dostoevsky:

"A monumental achievement. . . . [A]n exhaustive history of Dostoyevsky's mind, an encyclopedic account of the author as major novelist and thinker, essayist and editor, journalist and polemicist."

Muslim Lives in Eastern Europe

Gender, Ethnicity, and the Transformation of Islam in Postsocialist Bulgaria

Kristen Ghodsee

"Muslim Lives in Eastern Europe provides a nuanced perspective on social and economic change in postcommunist Bulgaria and a crucial ethnographic lens onto changing religious practices and gender norms among Pomak Bulgarians."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted by post or courier in three double-spaced copies. Notes and block quotations should also be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottom of the page. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. Submitted manuscripts may use either the humanities style (endnotes) or the author-date-bibliography system, though accepted articles will need to be revised to conform to Slavic Review's house style. Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly.

In general, articles should not exceed 8,000 words, excluding notes. Please indicate the word count on the cover page of the manuscript. Accepted manuscripts will be copyedited electronically, and authors will be asked to submit an electronic version. Submissions will not be returned.

The policy of Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published in any form or language or that are being considered for publication elsewhere. Slavic Review is the journal of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies, whose members support the journal through their dues. Slavic Review expects the authors of articles published in the journal to belong to the association.
