

Sewanee Theological Review

an anglican journal of theological reflection

“Questions of Mission: On Being the Church”

STR 40:4 (Michaelmas 1997)

*Michael Battle, Ian Douglas,
Robert Davis Hughes III, Marc Nikkel,
Wayne Schwab, Peter Slater, Owen
Thomas, Fredrica Harris Thompsett*

“Memoirs and Witnessings”

STR 40:3 (Pentecost 1997)

*Reginald Fuller, Kenneth Leech, Guy Fitch Lytle III, R. W. Southern,
Sara Maitland, Patricia N. Page,
Walter D. Dennis*

Copies of the two issues above are available for a single-copy price of $6 (foreign orders, $8). Or you may choose to begin your subscription with one or both of these issues. Bulk orders at a very reduced cost are accepted while supplies last; please call 1-800-722-1974 and ask for the STR office for more details.

Published quarterly, STR focuses on questions that are a present and continuing concern for the church. Recent themes have included centering prayer, liturgy, science, evangelism, and the future of the church, among many others.

Intended for both lay and academic audiences, STR publishes the work of some of today's most esteemed theologians and poets.

A one-year subscription is only $19 (foreign $25). Write to:

Sewanee Theological Review

SOT Box 47-G

Sewanee TN 37383-0001.

(Prepaid orders only, please.)

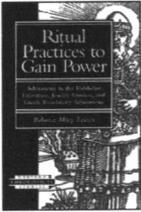

From Trinity Press International

The Harvard Theological Studies Series

Ritual Practices to Gain Power Adjurations in the Hekhalot Literature, Jewish Amulets, and Greek Revelatory Adjurations

by Rebecca Macy Lesses

NEW!

Focuses on adjurations or elaborate ritual performances that form a part of the early Jewish mystical literature known as the Hekhalot literature, stemming from Palestine and Babylonia in the fourth through eighth centuries

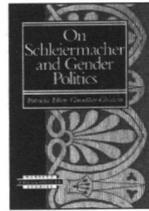

C.E. Contains instructions for ascents to heaven, the liturgy of angels, and descriptions of God and the divine world.

$22.00 paper

On Schleiermacher and Gender Politics

by Patricia E. Guenther-Gleason

NEW!

Explores the development of Schleiermacher's early thought within the context of his participation in Friedrich Schlegel's criticism of Friedrich Schiller's highly gender-coded aesthetics. Draws attention specifically to Schleiermacher's language that consistently veers off from Schiller's at points where the latter threatens to disparage, distort, or annihilate "the feminine."

$23.00 paper

"With such books as these two impressive volumes by L. Michael White, we can more securely imagine the Christians of the late Roman Empire at home in their churches, their own sacred spaces."—Coptic Church Review

The Social Origins of Christian Architecture, Volume 1 Building God's House in the Roman World: Architectural Adaptation among Pagans, Jews, and Christians

by L. Michael White

Uses literary, archaeological, and documentary sources to set the architectural history of the early church within its wider cultural context. Shows how the change from house churches to public basilicas coincided with crucial developments in the social aspects and religious practices of the emergent Christian movement.

$17.00 paper

The Social Origins of Christian Architecture, Volume 2 Texts and Monuments for the Christian Domus Ecclesiae in its Environment

by L. Michael White

Includes site and building plans, archaeological, historical, and geographical appendices, and substantial bibliographical references and archaeological reports. The most complete collection to date of the archaeological and literary sources for the study of Christian architecture in the first three centuries.

$30.00 paper

Available from your local bookstore or direct from Trinity Press International.

Call toll-free 800-877-0012, or (717) 541-8130.

Visit our website at www.morehousegroup.com.

SPECIAL ISSUE HONORING HELMUT KOESTER

- 343 Jesus and the Politics of Interpretation
Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza
- 359 τὰ δρώμενα καὶ τὰ λεγόμενα: The Eucharistic Memory of Jesus' Words in First Corinthians
Ellen Bradshaw Aitken
- 371 The Signification of Mark 10:45 among Gentile Christians
Adela Yarbro Collins
- 383 Apocalyptic Traditions in the Lukan Special Material
François Bovon
- 393 The Significance of φιλέω and φίλος in the Tradition of Jesus Sayings and in the Early Church
Ann Graham Brock
- 411 "No Rhyme or Reason": The Hidden Logia of the Gospel of Thomas
Allen Dwight Callahan
- 427 Words and Deeds: Jesus as Teacher and Jesus as Pattern of Life
Gregory J. Riley
- 437 Summaries of Doctoral Dissertations
- 445 Books Received