

BULLETIN OF THE HEGEL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Bulletin is a peer-reviewed journal that accepts articles in the field of Hegel studies. The field is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's relation to the history of philosophy (see recent articles on Plotinus, Hemsterhuis, Kierkegaard), Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry (see recent articles on realism, transcendental arguments, aesthetics), Hegel and modern European philosophy, Hegel's reception history, German Idealism, British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory and Hegel and literary studies (see recent piece on Ibsen).

Articles sent for consideration must be in duplicate, double-spaced, and anonymised. An electronic copy is also required, please send as attachment to the editor at K.Deligorgi@sussex.ac.uk

Upon acceptance, authors are sent a style-sheet. Full instructions to authors will be made available at the journal's website: <http://www.hsgb.group.shef.ac.uk/>

The Bulletin has also a strong tradition of book reviewing in English, German, French and Italian.

Publishers and prospective reviewers please contact the editor at K.Deligorgi@sussex.ac.uk

The next issue of the Bulletin 59/60 (2009) will include a new international editorial board, editorial committee, and a new co-editor Dr Gordon Finlayson (Sussex).
