The British Journal of Political Science (BJPoS) is a broadly based journal aiming to cover developments across a wide range of countries and specialisms. Contributions are drawn from all fields of political science (including political theory, political behaviour, public policy and international relations), and articles from scholars in related disciplines (sociology, social psychology, economics and philosophy) appear frequently. With a reputation established over 40 years of publication, the BJPoS is widely recognised as one of the premier journals in its field.

Harvard Theological Review

Published on behalf of the Faculty of Harvard
Divinity School

Editors

Jon D. Levenson, Harvard Divinity School, USA

Kevin Madigan, Harvard Divinity School, USA

Harvard Theological Review has been a central forum for scholars of religion and theology since its founding in 1908. It continues to publish compelling original research that contributes to the development of scholarly understanding and interpretation in the history and philosophy of religious thought in all traditions and periods - including the areas of Judaic studies, Hebrew Bible, New Testament, Christianity, archaeology, comparative religious studies, theology and ethics.

Scottish Journal of Theology

Published on behalf of Scottish Journal of Theology Ltd

Editor

Ian McFarland, University of Cambridge, UK

Scottish Journal of Theology is an international journal of systematic, historical and biblical theology. Since its foundation in 1948, it has become established as one of the world's leading theological journals. As well as publishing original research articles, most issues contain an article-length review of a recent book, with a reply from the author. Scottish Journal of Theology provides an ecumenical forum for debate, and engages in extensive reviewing of theological and biblical literature.
