Due to a production error, Figure 4 in this article was incorrectly replaced with a new version of Figure 1. The correct versions of both figures are reproduced below.
