OPEN ACCESS: The SAHGB has been committed since its foundation to the promotion of scholarship in the history of architecture to the widest possible audience. To that end, the journal policy allows authors to archive their manuscript in an institutional repository under the Green Open Access model. Please visit Open Access Publishing at Cambridge (cambridge.org/openaccess) for current information on our Open Access policies, compliance with major funding bodies, and guidelines on depositing your manuscript in an institutional repository.

DIGITAL ARCHIVE: The complete digital archive of the journal is available through the journals homepage with Cambridge University Press at <http://cambridge.org/arh>. Alternatively, all articles from three or more years ago are available through JSTOR, a not-for-profit online archive, at www.jstor.org. A full index to vols 1–46 (up to 2003), created by the late Professor Andor Gomme, is available at www.sahgb.org.uk.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC™-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, nongovernmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
