

CARDIFF LAW SCHOOL,
UNIVERSITY OF WALES

LL.M. DEGREES IN CANON LAW AND GRADUATES' DISSERTATIONS

1998

Peter W.S. Farrant, 'The history and development of ecclesiastical law and the bishop's courts in the Diocese of Sodor and Man'

Susan Holmes, 'The introduction of Canons B43 and B44 to the Church of England canon law and their effect on ecumenical relations'

Phillip L. Jones, 'Belief and the governance of the Church in Wales'

Andrew McFarlane, 'Child protection: the Church of England and the law'

Millius Palayiwa, 'Should priests tell? Privilege and the inviolability of the seal of the confessional'

1999

Graham Bentley, 'Ritual and the trial of Edward King, Bishop of Lincoln'

Daniel Cronin, 'The regulation of ministerial review in the Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches'

Anthony Jeremy, 'Pacta Sunt Servanda. The influence of canon law upon the contractual obligation of good faith'

Geoffrey King, 'The ordination of women as priests, ministers or spiritual leaders'

Brian Llewellyn, 'Liturgical law in the Church of England: Doctrine, development and schism'

Nicholas Mercer, 'Consistory courts and the European Convention on Human Rights'

David Wright, 'The reuse of graves in consecrated churchyards'