

HEGEL SOCIETY OF AMERICA

The Hegel Society of America will hold its fourth biennial meeting on November 11-13, 1976 at Villanova University, Villanova, Pennsylvania. The general topic for the meeting is Hegel's Social and Political Thought: The Philosophy of Objective Spirit. Papers are invited on all aspects of Hegel's conceptions of society, law, right, the state, and ethics, etc. as they function in his various works and as they stand in relation to other philosophies and movements. Proposals for papers must be submitted to the Program Chairman no later than December 15, 1975. Full papers in the form in which they are to be presented must be submitted by March 15, 1976. Papers may be submitted by the March deadline which have not been previously proposed. Proposals and papers will be considered by a program committee and accepted or rejected on a competitive basis. Direct all inquiries, proposals, and papers to: Donald Verene, Program Chairman, Department of Philosophy, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania 16802.

THE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR PUBLISHING IN PHILOSOPHY

wishes to announce the establishment of a book publishing division "Canadian Library of Philosophy" to be edited by members of the Department of Philosophy, Carleton University.

The Canadian Library of Philosophy will give priority to books by Canadian philosophers which, because of their specialized nature, may not be otherwise publishable.

Manuscripts over 40,000 words are invited and should be sent to:

Editorial Offices
Canadian Library of Philosophy
Department of Philosophy
Carleton University
Ottawa, Canada
K1S 5B6

Manuscripts under 40,000 words should be submitted to the C.A.A.P.'s monograph series, "Philosophy in Canada" c/o Department of Philosophy, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

Philosophical Monographs announces that it will publish monograph-length studies in philosophy beginning Spring 1976. PM is an independent, non-profit venture, assisted by the University City Science Center, an established non-profit consortium in Philadelphia, and devoted exclusively to serving the publishing needs of the profession. Manuscripts are invited, of not more than 200 typescript pages, on any topic of general interest to the profession at large. These should be accompanied by adequate return postage and an explanatory brief. All inquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Professor Joseph Margolis, Department of Philosophy, Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19122. The Editorial Advisory Board includes: Kurt Baier (Pittsburg), Steven Barker (Johns Hopkins), Panayot Butchvarov (Iowa), Norman Care (Oberlin), V. C. Chappell (Massachusetts, Amherst), Jerry Fodor (MIT), Donald Gustafson (Cincinnati), Michael Lockwood (Oxford), Ernin McMullin (Notre Dame), Harold Morick (SUNY Albany), Terence Penelhum (Calgary), Jerome Shaffer (Connecticut), H. S. Thayer (CUNY), Zak Van Straaten (Witwatersrand), Richard Wasserstrom (California, Los Angeles).

VICO AND CONTEMPORARY THOUGHT: *A Conference Celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the 'New Science' will be held January 27-31, 1976 at Columbia University and The New School for Social Research. The Conference will be concerned with Vico's thought in relation to contemporary ideas in philosophy, aesthetics, literary theory, linguistics, psychology, anthropology, sociology, political science and education. Some of the scholars whose participation in the meeting has been confirmed to date (June 30) are: Silvano Arieti, Isaiah Berlin, Harold Bloom, Noam Chomsky, Stanley Diamond, Max H. Fisch, Angus Fletcher, Amedeo Giorgi, Ernesto Grassi, Lawrence Kohlberg, Ernan McMullin, Sidney Morgenbesser, Leon Pompa, Edward W. Said, Meyer Schapiro, John Searle, Werner Stark, Donald P. Verene, René Wellek.

For information on the Conference write: Giorgio Tagliacozzo, Institute for Vico Studies, 69 Fifth Ave., Suite 17A, New York, N.Y. 10003. Tél. (212) 989-2909.

R. G. COLLINGWOOD MEMORIAL FUND

Robin George Collingwood (1889-1943) was a Fellow and Tutor in Philosophy at Pembroke College, Oxford, from 1912-1935. During this period he published or prepared his most important philosophical and historical works.

The College has decided to establish an annual essay prize named after him and is appealing for contributions from those would like to express their appreciation of his work. Cheques, made payable to Pembroke College and crossed R. G. Collingwood Fund, should be sent to the Vicegerent, Pembroke College, Oxford, England, from whom further information may also be obtained.

'GRAZER PHILOSOPHISCHE STUDIEN' is a new scholarly journal, published with administrative support from the philosophical Institute of the University of Graz.

The aim of the 'GRAZER PHILOSOPHISCHE STUDIEN' is to publish articles and discussion notes on philosophical problems which apply analytical and formal methods. Reviews will be confined to books selected for their special interest by the editors. There will be a list of books received.

A major objective of 'GRAZER PHILOSOPHISCHE STUDIEN' is to stimulate and to strengthen communication between American and European analytical philosophy. Therefore, contributions either in English, French or German will be accepted and published in this journal.

'GRAZER PHILOSOPHISCHE STUDIEN' will be published by Rodopi of Amsterdam and will begin to appear in 1975. One or two volumes of at least 200 pages will be published yearly. From time to time there will be published additional volumes on special topics.

Correspondence concerning editorial matters, manuscripts for publication, and books submitted for review should be sent to

Practical Reason

This book covers a wide spectrum of connected topics in the field of practical and moral thinking. It contains papers and discussions on the logic of practical reasoning and moral obligation; on the decision-theoretical approach to morality; on the relation between practical and theoretical reason; and on the political aspects of morality. $12.50

Explanation

The essays and discussions of the present volume examine in some detail, and in new ways, the nature of scientific explanation in general, the role of statistics in the natural and social sciences, the problem of the explanation of action and the function of teleology and ideology. $15.00

Elements of
Combinatory Logic

Professor Fitch here develops the system Q in order to provide one of the most complete and detailed accounts to date of the construction of a combinatory logic. The system is provably consistent, and it contains all the usual connectives and quantifiers of logic, as well as combinators of combinatory logic. $6.95

Paul Ramsey
The Ethics
of Fetal Research

In considering the moral and ethical problems involved in fetal research, Paul Ramsey deals with the ways in which medical policy is formulated. This important continuation of Ramsey's contribution to medical ethics does not tell the reader what to think about experimentation on fetuses, but how to think about this new form of research.
