Journal of the International Neuropsychological Society

Published for the International Neuropsychological Society

Editor-in-Chief

Kathleen Y. Haaland, NM VA Healthcare System, Albuquerque, US

JINS aims to further scientific and research activities in neuropsychology and enhance communication among its cognate member disciplines. The journal publishes scholarly, peer-reviewed articles and includes original research, timely review articles and transactions of the annual meetings of the International Neuropsychological Society. Contributions reflect the interest of all areas of neuropsychology, including (but not limited to): development of cognitive processes, brain-behavior relationships, adult neuropsychology, child neuropsychology, developmental neuropsychology, disorders of speech and language, and related topics such as behavioral neurology, neuropsychiatry, neuroimaging, and electrophysiology.
