

Revolutionary Syndicalism

An International Perspective

Edited by Marcel Van der Linden
and Wayne Thorpe

The widest-ranging study yet undertaken of the revolutionary syndicalist alternative in the workers movement in the half century before the Second World War.

Contents

The rise and fall of Revolutionary Syndicalism, Marcel van der Linden and Wayne Thorpe

French Syndicalism: An Experiment in Practical Anarchism, Barbara Mitchell

The many faces of Dutch revolutionary Trade Unionism, Marcel van der Linden

Anarchosyndicalism in the German Labour movement: a rediscovered minority tradition, Hans Manfred Bock

Revolutionary Syndicalism in Sweden before the Second World War, Lennart K. Persson

Syndicalism in a mature industrial setting: The case of Britain, Joseph White

The CNT: The glory and tragedy of Spanish Anarchosyndicalism, Antonio Bar

Revolutionary Syndicalism in Italy, Charles L. Bertrand

Revolutionary Syndicalism in Portugal, Bernhard Bayerlein and Marcel van der Linden

Argentine Syndicalism: Reformism before revolution, Ruth Thompson

Revolutionary Syndicalism in Mexico, John M. Hart

The rise and fall of Revolutionary Syndicalism in the United States, Melvyn Dubofsky

Syndicalism sidetracked: Canada's One Big Union, David Jay Bercuson

Syndicalist Internationalism before World War II, Wayne Thorpe

August 1990 272 pages Hardback 0 85967 815 6 £35.00

For telephone orders and queries, please phone Denise Riddell on (0252) 317707.

For other orders and information, please contact: The Academic Marketing Department, Scolar Press, Gower House, Croft Road, Aldershot, Hants., GU11 3HR, England.

No. 7, Summer 1990

CONSUMPTION:

Orvar Löfgren: Consuming Interests. Colin Campbell: Character and Consumption: An Historical Action Theory Approach to Understanding of Consumer Behaviour. Daniel Miller: Fashion and Ontology in Trinidad. Richard Wilk: Consumer Goods as Dialogue about Development. Jonathan Friedman: The Political Economy of Elegance.

Culture & History is an interdisciplinary journal dedicated to the study of historical anthropology and intellectual history. It is published by the Center for Research in the Humanities, University of Copenhagen.

Prices:

Subscription rate for nos. 7 & 8: DKK 295,- (approx. US $ 47).
Single issues DKK 185,- (approx. US $ 29). Nos. 1-6 DKK 110,- (approx. US$ 18)

Akademisk Forlag

Store Kannikestræde 6-8
POB 54, DK-1002 Copenhagen K,
Denmark.