

THE WORLD'S PARLIAMENT OF RELIGIONS

*The East/West Encounter,
Chicago, 1893*

Richard Hughes Seager

The 1893 World's Parliament of Religions was conceived as a presentation of all the major religions of the time, with the goal "to unite all religion against irreligion." Seager's beautifully fashioned narrative explores this fascinating event in all its complexities and shows it to be truly a watershed event in the creation of a more pluralistic religious culture in America.

PROPHETIC SISTERHOOD

Liberal Women Ministers of the Frontier, 1880–1930

Cynthia Grant Tucker

An inspiring account of Unitarian and Universalist clergywomen on the western frontier in the nineteenth century. Their questioning of traditional roles led to the creation of a domestic ministry whose scope extended far beyond the pulpit to suffrage, social settlements, and the peace movement. But because they were women, they failed to gain institutional acceptance.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF JONATHAN EDWARDS

A Study in Divine Semiotics

Stephen H. Daniel

"In this challenging work, Daniel draws on the semiotics of Foucault, Kristeva, and Peirce to explore Edwards's typology. . . . elegant and important . . ."

—Library Journal

"The identification of the dichotomy between the Renaissance and Modernist modes of logic and the detailed working out of that dichotomy in Edwards's writings constitute a new foundation for the study of Edwards's thought and rhetoric."

FROM SIN TO SALVATION

Stories of Women's Conversions, 1800 to the Present

Virginia Lieson Brereton

" . . . fascinating . . . " —Theological Book Review

By examining women's conversion experiences, the author provides a corrective to the much popularized TV evangelism. She examines the stories U.S. women have told of their profound realization of their sinfulness and the necessity of turning to God's grace and love for forgiveness.
